

New year in Spain

Traditionals

In some regions of Italy, it is customary to bring "new water" from the spring to the house on the first of January.

The good old Italian tradition of throwing away unnecessary things in the last minutes of the outgoing year.

How to prepare for the holiday in Italy

Residents of sunny Italy believe that the red color must certainly bring good luck. Therefore, they are happy to dress up in red for the New Year's table. It can be either a suit, dress or trousers, or underwear, which is simply full of shop windows.

BEFANA FAIRY

Fairy Befana gives presents to children in Spain. She looks like Baba Yaga with glasses, wears a raincoat, a pointy hat, and her stockings are full of holes.
