Spin a vowel to fill in the missing letter to build a new word.

A large grid of 20 four-leaf clovers arranged in 5 rows and 4 columns. In the center of the grid is a circular spinner divided into four equal quadrants. The spinner contains the following letters: top-left 'S', top-right 'A', bottom-left 'U', and bottom-right 'O'. Each clover has a small square box on its stem, intended for a student to write a letter based on the spinner's result. The clovers are arranged in a grid around the central spinner.
