

С ДНЁМ ПОБЕДЫ!

A MEMORIAL PLAQUE AT THE LOSINOOSTROVSKAYA STATION

This plaque was installed in 2011 in the memory of the soldiers killed in the explosion of the tier number 47045 at the Losinoostrovskaya station in December, 1941. There were soldiers of 18th Airborne Brigade. In the accident 400 people were killed. All of them were buried in the Raevskoye cemetery near the river Yauza in the north-eastern district of Moscow.

Nikolay Antonovich Ivin

- The only survivor was Ivin, as at the time of explosion, he violeted the order and went to get water.

N.A. Ivin
was one of the main initiators
to establish a memorial plaque.

*I would like to tell that it is so important to keep in our minds and in our hearts our great thanks
to all those who made it possible for to us live in peace and love!*

The presentation made by Anushenko Nastya