

Infinitive vs Gerund

by Alex's English

Complete the sentences using either the Infinitive or Gerund.

He used ... (to think) that life ended at 40, but now when he's 41, he knows it's not true.

Answer: He used to think that life ended at 40, but now when he's 41, he knows it's not true.

A dark grey arrow points right from the left edge. Several thin, curved lines in shades of blue and grey sweep across the left side of the slide.

*It's five in the morning. I'm not used
.... (to get) up so early.*

Answer: It's five in the morning. I'm not used getting up so early.

A dark grey arrow points right from the left edge. Several thin, curved lines in shades of blue and grey sweep across the left side of the slide.

*It's impossible... (to cut) with this knife.
It's blunt.*

Answer: It's impossible to cut with this knife. It's blunt.

My father hates ... (to listen) to jazz music.

Answer: My father hates listening to jazz music.

I'd like...(to cook) something special when guests come.

Answer: I'd like to cook something special when guests come.

A dark grey arrow points right from the left edge. Several thin, curved lines in shades of blue and grey sweep across the left side of the slide.

*We stopped for a while ... (to admire)
the scenery.*

Answer: We stopped for a while to admire the scenery.

I hate...(to wait) in queues. It really annoys me.

Answer: I hate waiting in queues. It really annoys me.

A dark grey arrow points right from the left edge. Several thin, curved lines in shades of blue and grey sweep across the left side of the slide.

*I can't go on...(to eat) like this -
I'm overweighted.*

*Answer: I can't go on eating like this -
I'm overweighted.*

A dark grey arrow points right from the left edge. Several thin, curved lines in shades of blue and grey sweep across the left side of the slide.

I'm sorry...(to disturb) you, but could you tell me the time?

Answer: I'm sorry to disturb you, but could you tell me the time?

A dark grey arrow points right from the left edge. Several thin, light blue curved lines sweep upwards from the bottom left towards the center of the slide.

He dislikes... (to spend) money on the expensive clothes.

Answer: He dislikes spending money on the expensive clothes.

A dark grey arrow points right from the left edge. Several thin, curved lines in shades of blue and grey sweep across the left side of the slide.

I remember...(to go) to Venice as a child.

Answer: I remember going to Venice as a child.

A dark grey arrow points right from the left edge. Several thin, curved lines in shades of grey and blue sweep across the left side of the slide.

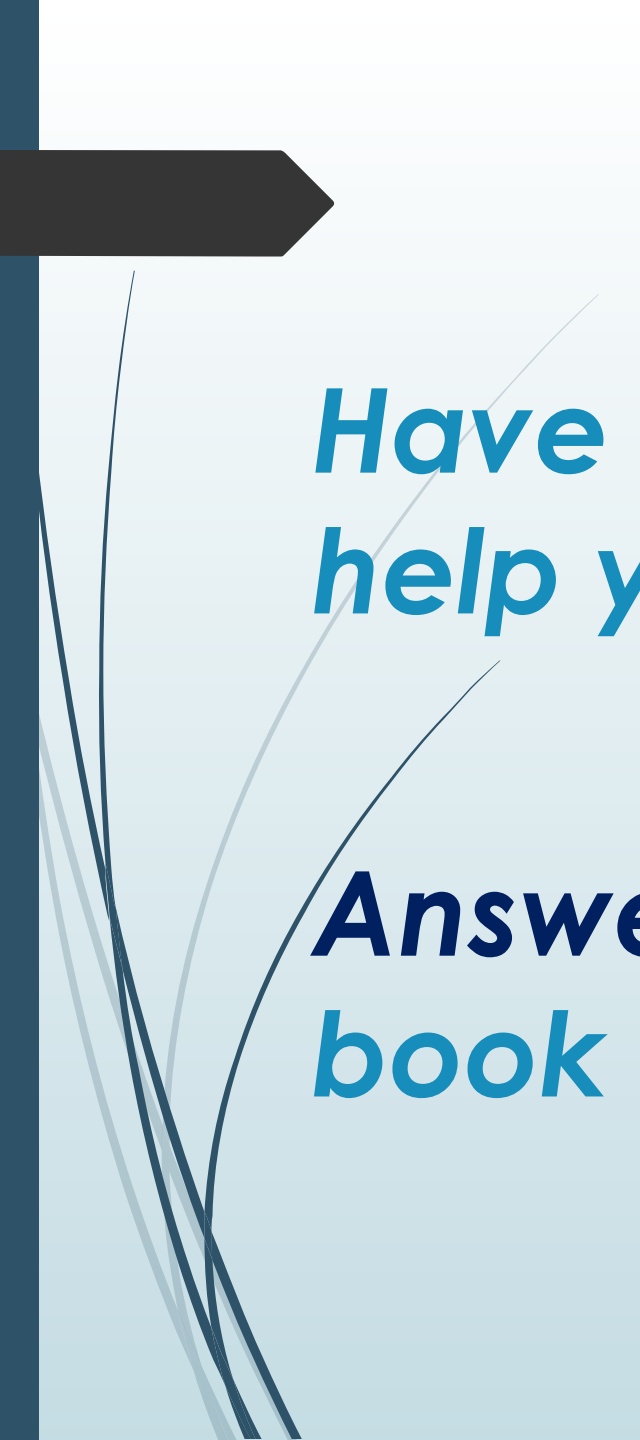

*Could you please stop...(to whistle)!
I'm trying...(to concentrate) on my work.*

Answer: Could you please stop whistling! I'm trying to concentrate on my work.

A dark grey arrow points right from the left edge. Several thin, curved lines in shades of blue and grey sweep across the left side of the slide.

He'll never forget ...(to see) the Grand Canyon for the first time.

Answer: He'll never forget seeing the Grand Canyon for the first time.

A dark grey arrow points right from the left edge. Several thin, curved lines in shades of blue and grey sweep across the left side of the slide.

Have you tried...(to read) a book to help you to sleep?

Answer: Have you tried reading a book to help you to sleep?

Did you remember ... (to send) your sister a card? It's her birthday today.

Answer: Did you remember to send your sister a card? It's her birthday today.