The surrounding area includes a parking lot, landscaped green spaces, and a road. The text is overlaid in yellow on the left side of the image.

Here is the stadium in the city of Krasnodar. One of the most beautiful stadiums in our country. His attendance is 35 thousand people.

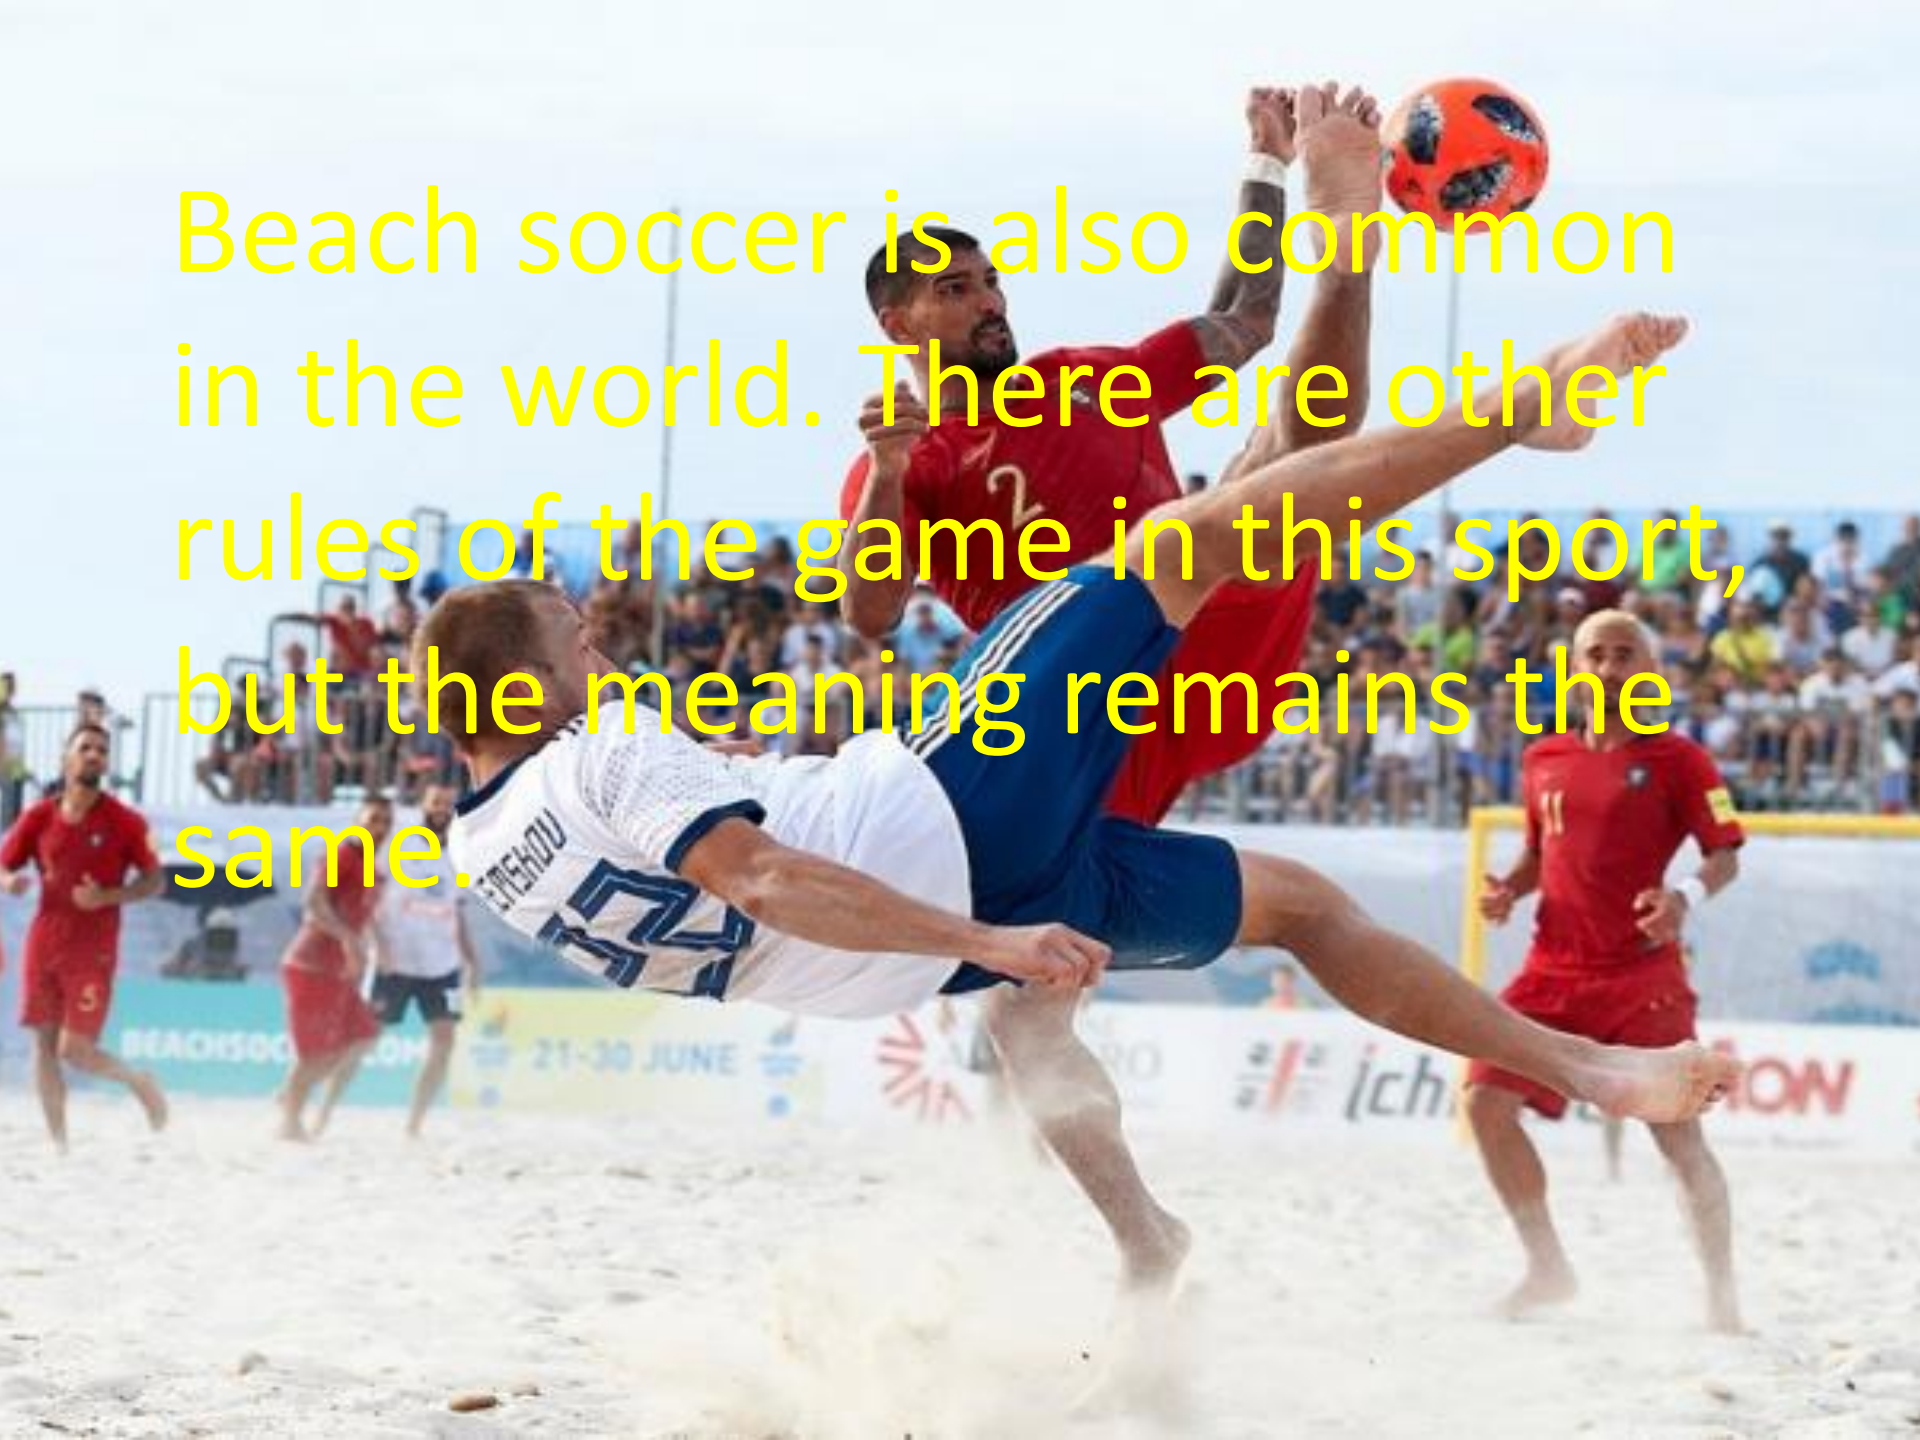

The largest stadium in the world of Maracana. Its attendance is 105 thousand people. It is located in Brazil

Football in Sevastopol is going through hard times. Due to European sanctions, Crimean teams cannot play the championship of Russia. Therefore, in Crimea they created their own Crimean tournament, but its level is very weak.

Beach soccer is also common in the world. There are other rules of the game in this sport, but the meaning remains the same.

Futsal is very connected with regular football because tournaments in children's football are often played on small football fields.

All developed countries invest a lot of money in children's football. Because football has become not only a sport but also a very big business.
