

Listen to the conversation and say where these people are and what they are talking about.

Did you go ice fishing on your winter holiday?

Yes, I did.

No, I didn't.

Did you have a snowball fight on your winter holiday?

Yes, I did.

No, I didn't.

Did you go snowboarding on your winter holiday?

Yes, I did.

No, I didn't.

Did you make Christmas decorations
on your winter holiday?

Yes, I did.

No, I didn't.

Did you go skiing on your winter holiday?

Yes, I did.

No, I didn't.

Did you go sledding on your winter holiday?

Yes, I did.

No, I didn't.

Listen to the conversation again
and match people and their holiday activities.
Then click on the pictures and check your answers.

Teacher

Tom

Mel

Jack

*Guess the meaning of the word in red.
Click on the picture and check your answer.*

The teacher went skiing.

go → went

*Guess the meaning of the word in red.
Click on the picture and check your answer.*

Tom had a snowball fight.
have → had

*Guess the meaning of the word in red.
Click on the picture and check your answer.*

Tom made decorations.

make → made

Complete the sentence with the suitable verb.

The teacher skiing.

went

had

made

Complete the sentence with the suitable verb.

Jack ice fishing.

went

had

made

Complete the sentence with the suitable verb.

Tom a snowball fight.

went

had

made

Complete the sentence with the suitable verb.

The teacher snowboarding.

went

had

made

Complete the sentence with the suitable verb.

Tom Christmas decorations.

went

had

made

Complete the sentence with the suitable verb.

Mel sledding.

went

had

made

Make true sentences about your holiday.

I went / didn't go ice fishing.

I had / didn't have a snow fight.

I went / didn't go snowboarding.

Make true sentences about your holiday.

I made / didn't make decorations.

I went / didn't go skiing.

I went / didn't go sledding.

go

went

have had

make

made

irregular verbs

There are much more irregular verbs.
Good luck with learning them!