

My first semester at the University of Turan

My first day started with a line where the Rector greeted and wished good luck to all students in studies....

Then began studying where I met my classmates from Turan college and met new classmates and then...

Every day we went to Turan, held a lifestyle, learned the subjects by heart, hit the books to pass the winter session with flying colours.