

Before we

What do you usually do in your

Have you got lots of friends

Where do you hang out together

at the fast food restaurant

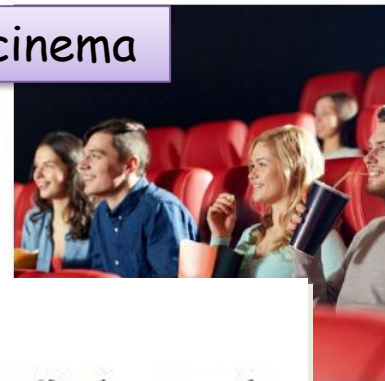

in the park

at the mall

in the cinema

hang out phrasal verb

1 informal to spend a lot of time in a particular place or with particular people with

🔊 I don't really know who she hangs out with.

🔊 Where do the youngsters hang out?

to hang out

at the beach

Vocabulary

Listen and repeat. Which of the following do you do every day? once a week? twice a week?

clean the windows

brush my teeth

tidy my room

take out the rubbish

have a shower

hang out with friends

wash the car

study

do the washing-up

read magazines/books

to read newspapers/magazines

to take out the rubbish

to hang out with friends

to study

to take a shower

to brush one's teeth

to clean the windows

to tidy one's room

to wash the car

to do the washing-up

Complete the sentences with the Present Simple of the verbs in the box.

PrS

~~not watch~~ ~~has~~

1. Jack has

2. Betty always weekend.

3. Mike and Tim
They

4. My father washes

he, she, it
+ Vs/es
- do/does not V
? Do/Does V ?

Reading

Listen and read. Choose the best title.

A. My favourite restaurant

B. Living above a chip shop

C. Jobs for teenagers

to sit around

My name's Lucy Beale and I live in London. My dad's got a chip shop and we live in the flat above it. The chip shop is my home, my workplace and a great place to hang out with my friends.

During the week I usually wake up at 6:30 and help my mum at the shop. I clean the tables and she cleans the floor. Then, I go to school.

I get home at about 4:00 in the afternoon. There aren't usually many people in the shop at that time, so I do my homework there. Then, I have dinner. I rarely have fish and chips because I'm bored of it. In the evening my friends sit around (also sit about British English) phrasal verb

to spend a lot of time sitting and doing nothing very useful

We sat around for a bit, chatting.

I enjoy working at my dad's chip shop, but every evening I always have a long shower because I smell of fried fish! I hate it!

Read the text again and answer the questions.

What does Lucy do before school?

Where does she do her homework?

When do Lucy's friends visit her?

How often does she work till ten?

What does Lucy do every evening?

My name's Lucy Beale and I live in London. My dad's got a chip shop and we live in the flat above it. The chip shop is my home, my workplace and a great place to hang out with my friends.

During the week I usually wake up at 6:30 and help my mum at the shop. I clean the tables and she cleans the floor. Then, I go to school.

I get home at about 4:00 in the afternoon. There aren't usually many people in the shop at that time, so I do my homework there. Then, I have dinner. I rarely have fish and chips because I'm bored of it. In the evening my friends sometimes come to the shop. We play video games or just sit around and talk.

I don't work at the shop every evening. I work three times a week. Twice a week I work till 8pm and once a week, on Saturdays, till 10pm.

I enjoy working at my dad's chip shop, but every evening I always have a long shower because I smell of fried fish! I hate it!

Listening

Tom is answering questions for a survey.
Listen and do some exercises.

2. Complete

1. Tom

2. Tom

a v

3. Tom

on

4. Tom

- Excuse me, can I ask you a few questions for the survey?
- Sure, what's it about?
- How much teenagers help at home. Do you help your parents at home?
- I try to. Yes.
- OK. What's your name?
- Tom Watkins.
- And how old are you?
- I'm sixteen.
- OK. How often do you take out the rubbish?
- Well, I don't really. My dad does it every day.
- Right. And you don't help him.
- No, I don't.
- What about the washing-up?
- Oh, I hate doing the washing-up.
- Really? So you don't do that either.
- Yes, I do. I do the washing-up about three times a week. My sister does it only other four days.
- I see. OK then. Do you tidy your room?
- Yes. I usually tidy it on Saturday morning.
- So, that's once a week.
- That's right.
- Great. Are there any other jobs you do around the house?
- Yes. I help wash the car sometimes.
- OK, so you help your dad. When do you...
- My dad? No. I help my mum with the car. She loves washing the car.
- Really? OK...

script

Speaking

Talk in pairs about how often you and other members of your family do the following.

How often do you do the washing-up?

Once a day. What about you?

I never do the washing-up.

Every day.

Really? How often does your mother do the washing-up?

- every day/morning...
- on Fridays
- in the afternoon
- at 9am
- at the weekends
- in March
- always
- usually
- rarely
- once/twice/three times a week/day...