

Tatarstan

Anthem of the Republic of Tatarstan.

Сколько дорог я прошел, весь мир
обойдя,
Нежный ветер ласкал мое лицо любя,
Но только придя к тебе Родная земля,
Грудь сжалась, место радости не
найдя...
В один день даже если будет разлука,
Грусть по тебе это сплошная мука,
Без тебя, о Родная земля,
Нет жизни, без тебя — нет меня...
В один день даже если будет разлука,
Я как будто словно сирота!
Лишь ты мой смысл жизни,
Лишь ты яркий свет отчизны.

How many roads I passed, the whole world
having bypassed,
The gentle wind caressed my person loving,
But only having come to you the Native
earth,
The breast was compressed, a place of pleasure without having found ...
In one day even if there will be a
separation,
The grief on you is a continuous flour,
Without you, about the Native earth,
There is no life, without you — there is no I
...
In one day even if there will be a
separation,
I as though as if orphan!
Only you are my meaning of the life,
Only you are bright light of fatherland.

The republic is located in the center of the large industrial area.

Kazan - the capital of the Republic of Tatarstan.

Sights.

Tower to Syuyumbika - a watchtower in the Kazan Kremlin, one of the highest in Europe falling towers.

The Qol Sharif mosque - one of the main Muslim mosques of the Republic of Tatarstan and Kazan.

The Kazan Kremlin – the most known place of tourist pilgrimage in Kazan and the most widespread view of a photo of tourists.

Millenium Bridge - the highest bridge in Kazan.

Bauman Street – the foot street in the historical center of Kazan.

Food.

Favourite and not less ancient baked dish is belish.

Very peculiar product is the gubadiya, first of all characteristic for kitchen of city Kazan Tatars.

Chek-chek is an obligatory wedding entertainment. Chek-chek brings in the house of the husband young, and also her parents.

The End.
Thanks for attention.