

Are you
a cat lover?

You greet all of
your friends by
saying:

You insist on personally
taste-testing any new cat
food you buy

You always share your sweets with kitty-usually a Kit Kat or a bag of white mice.

You sit on the floor to watch TV whilst your feline friend lounge on the sofa... It wouldn't be nice to disturb them

You have a wardrobe full of clothes and accessories for your cat.

Your cat's
deluxe litter
tray covers over
half of the floor
space in your kitchen.

People start to roll their eyes every time you begin a story with, "This one time my cat...."

You'd much rather
spend Sunday
morning baking
tuna cookies for
your cat than
cooking Sunday
lunch for your family.

The first thing you do in the morning is shake the cats out of your bed.

IT'S OK HUMAN

I'M NOT COLD ANYMORE

You don't ask questions.
Well, curiosity killed the cat.
