

Are you
a cat lover?

You greet all of your friends by saying:

You insist on personally taste-testing any new cat food you buy

You always share your sweets with kitty-usually a Kit Kat or a bag of white mice.

You sit on the floor to watch TV whilst your feline friend lounge on the sofa... It wouldn't be nice to disturb them

You have a wardrobe full of clothes and accessories for your cat.

Your cat's deluxe litter
tray covers over
half of the floor space in your kitchen.

People start to roll their eyes
every time you begin a story
with, "This one
time my cat...."

You'd much rather spend Sunday
morning baking
tuna cookies for your cat than cooking Sunday
lunch for your family.

The first thing you do in the morning is shake the cats out of your bed.

You don't ask questions.
Well, curiosity killed the cat.
