

TASK 1

Look at the picture and discuss the following:

- Where do you think the place is?
- Would you want to read in a place like this? Why(not)?
- Do you usually take a book with you when you're travelling or do you prefer e-book readers?
- What's the nicest or most unusual place that you've spent time reading in?

TASK 2

Tell each other about your interests and how you spend your free time.

Think about the following:

- TV
- Music
- Films
- Sport
- English

Find five things you have in common.

TASK 3

SB p. 8 ex. 4

Talk about your leisure interests using different structures (tend to, used to/would, all the time, as I'd like to, very rarely, now and again, not as a rule, most of the time).

How much do you have in common?

TASK 4

SB p. 8 ex. 5

Do you... much?

Ask each other 5 questions about the following areas:

- 1) work
- 2) study
- 3) holiday
- 4) eating
- 5) family

Don't forget to use the structures from the previous task in your answers.

| 9) uplifting | i) upsetting |
| 10) awful | j) so extreme that it seems silly |

TASK 6

SB p. 9 ex. 12 - Act out the short conversations softening B`s resposes and paying attention to the stress and intonation.

SB p. 9 ex. 14 - Make short conversations disagreeing politely.

- 1) I love Harry Potter and stuff like that.
- 2) I`m really into opera. It`s fantastic.
- 3) I love any reality TV shows.

TASK 7

Work in pairs. Have conversations about your habits using the guide below. Then swap roles.

Ask question: Do you read / listen to music / go to the cinema / watch TV much?

Answer, giving as full an answer as possible.

Ask follow-up question: What kind of stuff are you into?

What other things do you read / watch? etc.

Have you ever seen / read ...?

Don't you find it a bit ...? etc.
