Ex. 6. Write an email to your English-speaking pen friend about a trip you recently went on. Use the infinitive or -ing form.

Dear Tanya,

I hope you are well. I really want to tell you about my trip to Paris. It was great and I especially enjoyed walking along the Seine River. It's so beautiful. Everyday, I looked forward to eating at the sidewalk cafes. One afternoon, we went shopping along the Champs de'Lyse and I bought a great handbag. I planned to visit all the great museums, but I only managed to see the Louvre. I had the chance to practise my French in the shops and restaurants. It was a wonderful experience! Tell my about your summer. How was your trip to the seaside? Write Soon!

Love,
Steven
