

Penny, nickel & dime - money phrases and idioms

Let's get started

with a warm-up

Match the terms for money to their value.

buck

dime

nickel

penny

quarter

Let's check your answers.

buck

dime

nickel

penny

quarter

penny

nickel

dime

quarter

buck

Let's learn some money phrases
and idioms

Complete the phrases and idioms below with the words in the box. [part 1/2]

big

make

dozen

other

every

pincher

five

two

flip

- A. put in one's cents → express one's opinion
- B. be a dime a → be very common and not valuable
- C. a and dime → a store that sells small items at low prices
- D. bucks → a large amount of money
- E. a quick buck → earn money easily and quickly

Complete the phrases and idioms below with the words in the box. [part 2/2]

big

make

dozen

other

every

pincher

five

two

flip

- F. a penny → a person who is unwilling to spend money
- G. be worth penny → be worth all the money
- H. the side of the coin → a different way of considering a situation
- I. a coin → throw a coin in the air to decide between two choices

Let's check your answers. [part 1/2]

big

make

dozen

other

every

pincher

five

two

flip

- A. put in one's two cents → express one's opinion
- B. be a dime a dozen → be very common and not valuable
- C. a five and dime → a store that sells small items at low prices
- D. big bucks → a large amount of money
- E. make a quick buck → earn money easily and quickly

Let's check your answers. [part 2/2]

big

make

dozen

other

every

pincher

five

two

flip

- F. a penny pincher → a person who is unwilling to spend money
- G. be worth every penny → be worth all the money
- H. the other side of the coin → a different way of considering a situation
- I. flip a coin → throw a coin in the air to decide between two choices

It's speaking time!

Discuss the questions. [part 1/2]

- How often do you flip a coin to make a decision? Do you believe in fate?
- Talk about one thing you bought that was worth every penny.
- What can you buy in five and dimes in your country? Do you go there often? What things do you usually buy there?
- Who is a penny pincher among your friends and family? Are you a penny pincher?

Discuss the questions. [part 2/2]

- Have you ever made a quick buck? How did you do that?
- What academic degrees are a dime a dozen nowadays?
- Do you know anybody who always puts in his/her two cents even when they are not experts in the discussed topic? Does that behaviour annoy you?
- What professions in your country earn big bucks? How has it changed over the years?

Thanks!