

Portrait miniatures and architecture

16th century

Where and when were they made?

This age hath these passed by English was by that valiant Sir Francis Drake
the Pelican and second Gentleman master and his in the desire 1586

This South part of the world contains almost the third part of the Globe is yet unknown certain sea-crafts excepted which rather have, there is a land then discover, either Land people or Commodities

Mitacorum regio
the Country of Par
rats, so called of y^e Port gals from y^e extraordinary

What is meant by the term 'portrait miniature'?

The word 'miniature' comes from the Latin word 'miniare'. This means 'to colour with red lead', a practice that was used for the capital letters.

What were portrait miniatures made for?

Who are the miniaturists to know?

Lucas Horenbout

(1490-1544)

Hans Holbein the Younger

(1497-1543)

Jean Clouet

(1480-1541)

Who are the miniaturists to know?

Nicholas Hilliard

(1547-1619)

Isaac Oliver

(1565-1617)

Samuel Cooper

(1609-1672)

Nicholas Hilliard (1547-1619) is the first great native-born English painter of the Renaissance. He became an outstanding painter of portrait miniatures, the first notable English artist of this medium.

An Unknown Youth Leaning Against a Tree Among Roses

An Unknown Man Against a Background of Flames

Eroshina Anna and Demidova Anna «10 D» Vladimir 2021

Thank you for attention

