Among all artifacts this one is the weirdest (weird).

What is more beautiful (beautiful) this pendant or the box with bones?

The more (much) he cleaned the artifact, the more (much) it looked like a chicken.

This is the least interesting (interesting) artifact for me. It looks usual and boring.

This artifact is older (old) than the first Christian relics.

This sword is the rustiest (rusty) among the three.

What is the earliest (early) time when this instrument appears in history?

Clean it, this mirror is the dirtiest (dirty) object on our exhibition.

We find fake artifacts more often (often) than the real ones.

Ships on the less quality (quality) than usually.

This is strange, the bones here are as small (small) as human fingers.

The further (far) we were going, the better (good) we saw that the map was a fake.

This artifact is more mysterious (mysterious) than the one they found last year in Texas.

This note sounds less melodic (melodic) than a modern one. The modern one is of better quality.

Between a vase and a cup, the vase is taller (tall).

This plate looks shinier (shiny) than others because of the wax.

The fossils are one of the most desired (desired) objects for an amateur (good) archeologist.

Authorities (amateur) in archeology as children.

A magician is his magic wand.

What object is more valuable (valuable): this stone or the green one?

This hat was torn to pieces. To restore it was harder (hard) than any artifact.

Our trip could be shorter (short) without that shop.

The harder (hard) is to explain the object, the higher (high) chances to call it an artifact.

That was worst (bad) to ask for a genie.
