The image consists of three concentric squares centered on a white background. The outermost square is the largest, followed by a medium-sized square, and then a smaller inner square. A large, thin red 'X' is drawn across the entire composition, extending from the corners of the outermost square to the opposite corners. In the center, overlapping the innermost square, the text 'You can go' is written in a bold, red, sans-serif font. The word 'You' is on the top line, and 'can go' is on the bottom line, both slightly offset to the right.

You can go
