The Republic of Uzbekistan is one of the cradles of civilization. Located in the heart of the ancient Silk Route, it is a unique bridge connecting the great civilization of the East and West.

THE FLAG AND EMBLEM OF UZBEKISTAN

The flag of Uzbekistan is a light blue over white over light green tricolor, with thin red stripes separating the three stripes. In the upper hoist corner is a white crescent and 12 white stars.

The 12 stars stand for the zodiac. White is for peace, green for nature, and red for the life force. The blue stripe stands for eternal night and for water as a fundamental source of life.

The current coa retains many parts of the old SSR COA: the grain and cotton wreaths, the ribbon (in the national colors now) with inscription, the sun, an even the star: this is, however, an eight-pointed blue star now instead of the communist five-pointed red star. The bird in the text of Law have the name "Khumo" - symbol of happiness and love to freedom.
