

LIVERPOOL

Подготовили:
Эрешкулыева Шемшат
Аманова Айна

Liverpool – is one of the biggest cities in Great Britain and one of the biggest port. Liverpool is situated on the right bank of the river Mersey not far from the Ireland sea. Liverpool was named in honor of a fairy bird «liver» which is a symbol of the city. More than 700 thousand people live in Liverpool. Liverpool is a big industrial, administrative and cultural center. It was found in 1207.

Architecture

Liverpool Metropolitan Cathedral (1967) is the most original and the most exotic church in the world. Its nickname is Paddy's Wigwam.

The Anglican Cathedral – the largest Cathedral in Great Britain and the fifth in size in the world.

St. George's Hall (1854) is situated in Lime Street. It is the most beautiful building in Liverpool. It has a concert hall, where is situated a huge organ. Charles Dickens read his stories here.

Town Hall on Castle St (1754).

Neogotic Anglican Cathedral has a huge bell tower.

These are Royal Liver Buildings. Many people think that Big Ben is the biggest tower clock in England but the biggest tower clock is situated here.

Albert Dock (1846) is the first close Doc in the world. Near the Albert Doc you can find many shops, café, museums: for example Tate Modern Art Gallery and sea Merseyside Maritime Museum. pirs Head is situated Near the Albert Doc. There are situated Royal Liver Buildings where you can see the symbol of Liverpool

If you want to learn some more information about the history of the city visit Merseyside Maritime Museum (1851)

This is a modern Liverpool. Beetham Tower West (2007) is the highest building. It has 40 floors.

It is a postal box in Liverpool.

The nickname of this building is Turning the Place over. It was built in 2008 year, when Liverpool became cultural capital of Europe. England architect Richard Wilson made this original project.

This is Royal Liver Buildings. Namely here is the biggest tower clock in England, but not on Big Ben.

What is it?

- 1. Liverpool Metropolitan Cathedral
- 2. Big Ban
- 3. Royal Liver Buildings
- 4. Tate Modern Art Gallery

Thank you for attention!

