Algernon*

- And people laughing at me.
- Nobody is laughing at you.

Quotes from the novel

- “Why haven’t ever noticed how beautiful Alice Kinnian is?”
- “When she smiles, her full lips look as if she’s pouting.”
- “I knew I was blushing, and I didn’t know where to look or what to do with my hand.”

- "I'm a human being, a person- with parents and memories and history-and I was before you ever wheeled me into that operating room!"
- "God damn him. He didn't know what he was talking about. At the point, the compulsion overwhelmed me. I watched in fascination as my hand moved, independent of my will, to put down the latch of Algernon's cage."
