

Izhevsk landmarks

The background of the slide is an abstract composition. The upper half features a dark, almost black, space from which several bright, white, and grey light rays or beams emanate, fanning out towards the right side of the frame. These rays create a sense of depth and movement. The lower half of the slide is a solid, dark grey rectangle, providing a stark contrast to the dynamic, light-filled upper section.

Sculpture Izhik - the Mascot of Izhevsk

The idea to install the symbol of Izhevsk-the boy Izhik-was born in the framework of the project "250 years of Izhevsk — 250 good deeds". The idea belongs to the movement of children of the Oktyabrsky district of Izhevsk "Youth", the project coordinator was Nikolai Khaliullin. The material for the sculpture began to be collected all over the world — in early summer, the city announced the collection of old keys, boxes for which were put in hospitals, shopping centers, schools and even kindergartens. In total, several thousand keys were collected, and Izhevsk residents brought even very rare copies.
