

Interesting facts about
Valentine's day.

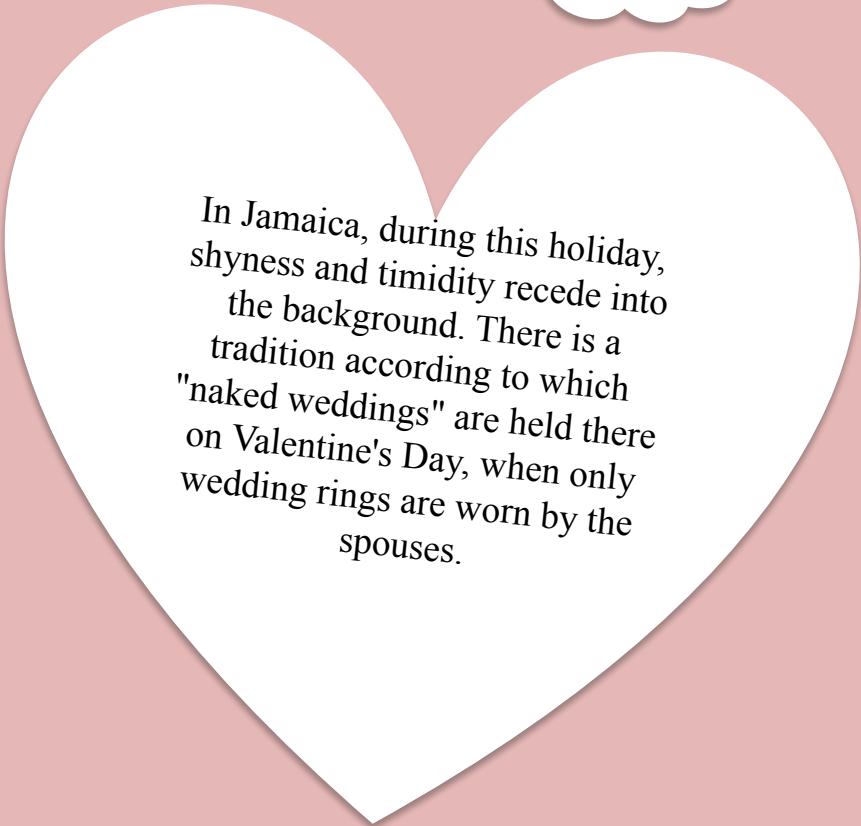

The favorite gift for February 14, undoubtedly, is chocolate. So the first box of chocolates was invented by Richard Calbury for Valentine's Day. By the way, psychiatrists used to prescribe chocolate to their patients suffering from unrequited love.

According to legend, in ancient Rome on February 14, a holiday was celebrated in honor of the goddess of marriage and motherhood, Juno. On this day, the girls wrote love letters, which were then thrown into a huge urn. The young men had to, without looking, pull out one letter at a time and start courting the girl whose letter they came across.

For the Japanese, Valentine's Day is a men's holiday. On this day, the strong half are overwhelmed with gifts and congratulations.

In Jamaica, during this holiday, shyness and timidity recede into the background. There is a tradition according to which "naked weddings" are held there on Valentine's Day, when only wedding rings are worn by the spouses.

Thank you for your attention and happy February 14th.