

My school

- In my school everyone will be learn how to draw and how to play on instruments. Because I think, that people should not only memorize some theorems, also they should develop imagination

I draw it because it is explain more then I could

Inside will be relaxing atmosphere, so that children do not shut themselves up

It is how the classrooms will look like

- That's all what I wanted to show you. Thanks for watching