Uses of Will

- When we decide to do something at the moment of speaking:

It's a bit cold in this room! I'll turn the heating on!

- To talk about predictions :
(PROBABLY)

It will rain in London.

- When we offer to do something:

Don't worry, I'll go and buy some food for you.

Uses of Will

□ Promises:

I promise I won't tell anyone.

□ Requests:

Will you help me with my homework?

- Hopes
- Expectations
- Beliefs

- I think
- I'm sure
- Prabably
- Possibly
- Perhaps
- Maybe

MAY / MIGHT

□ Plans and intentions that aren't firm decisions yet
(possibly)

I might stay in tonight.
It depends on what's on TV.

□ When we less certain that a prediction is true
It might rain. If it does,
we can eat indoors.

REMEMBER!!!

- If the rains stops I will go out.
- We will visit this park when we have time.

According to a recent survey, 60% of today's 18-to 25 year-olds in Britain are leaving home without being able to cook five simple recipes.

Anna. I don't want that to be me, because I think home cooking means a healthier diet, so (1) I'm going to / I may learn. My friend's aunt is a chef, and she's agreed to teach me. My lesson (2) start / will start next Thursday. She says she (3) teaches / might teach me spaghetti Bolognese. (4) I'll / I might probably ask her if we can do something vegetarian because I don't like touching raw meat.

Fumio. I've never cooked in my life, and I'm never (5) cooking / going to cook, either. (6) I'm moving / I'll move next week to live with friends at university, and they're all learning to be cooks. I'm sure (7) they'll practise / they're practising their skills on me when (8) I'm / I'll be hungry.

Mohammed. I've never thought about it, but I probably (9) don't / won't learn unless (10) I'm needing / I need to. Right now I live at home, but when I live on my own, (11) I might / I'm going to possibly get more interested in cooking. It doesn't look very hard, though, so I'm sure (12) I'm picking / I'll pick it up fast.

- Can you cook now?
- When you leave home, will you be more like Ana, Fumio or Mohammed? Why?
