19 Read the text and draw Caroline's family tree.

A FRIENDLY FAMILY

Caroline Porter has a large family. There are nine people in it. The oldest member of her family is her granny. You can hardly believe it but she is about 90. She lives in a small cottage in the country. Caroline's granny is very interested in life. She is fond of gardening and has got a lot of beautiful and unusual flowers in her small tidy¹ garden. When Caroline's granny was young she was a greengrocer and worked in a small shop in the same street.

5. Caroline's mother and father are architects. They are about 50 but look much younger. They are fond of ancient² Russian churches and they often travel to Russia. They visit big cities and small towns. They are real specialists and know a lot. They often tell their family about their journeys. Caroline's mother is called Debbie. She is a tall woman, slim³ and fair-haired,⁴ very clever and nice. Her husband's name is Peter. Peter is shorter than his wife. He is thin and dark-haired. He is very brave. They have been married for 25 years and are real friends.

Alice

Victor

Debbie has a brother, Victor, and a sister, Alice, who is a nurse in a hospital. Alice is not married and has no children. Victor is a salesman. He is married and has two children — Bob and Polly. They are at primary school. Caroline's cousins are very bright. They

² ancient ['eɪnʃənt] — древний

³ slim [slɪm] — тонкий, стройный

⁴ fair-haired [fɛə'hɛəd] — светловолосый

ENGLISH-SPEAKING COUNTRIES

ular language nowadays. People all over the world speak English. In Russia and France, in Germany and Italy, in Spain and Egypt people learn English as a foreign language. They do. By the way, they say, that Helen: Oh, yes, it certainly has. People will understand you practically everywhere if you speak English. In most of the countries people speak English and their native language of course.

Helen: In Great Britain, the USA, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. These are English-speaking countries.

Diana: So in all these countries people speak the same language, don't they?
Helen: My answer is "yes" and "no". Though they all speak English, yet it is a little different in each of these countries.

Diana: You don't say so! I never knew that Americans and the English speak different languages.

Helen: Oh, no. They don't. They speak English in both countries, but people speak American English in the USA and British English in Great Britain. Different words for the same things.

Diana: What do you mean?

Helen: I mean that people live in flats in England but live in apartments in America. They eat cookies and pies in the USA, but biscuits and sweets in Great Britain. Children go to school in the USA.

Children go to school in the fall in America but in England.

Diana: That's very interesting indeed.
Answer the questions.

1. What English-speaking countries do you know?
2. Is English or French the most important language in your country?

2. Is English or French the most important language nowadays?
3. What foreign languages are popular?

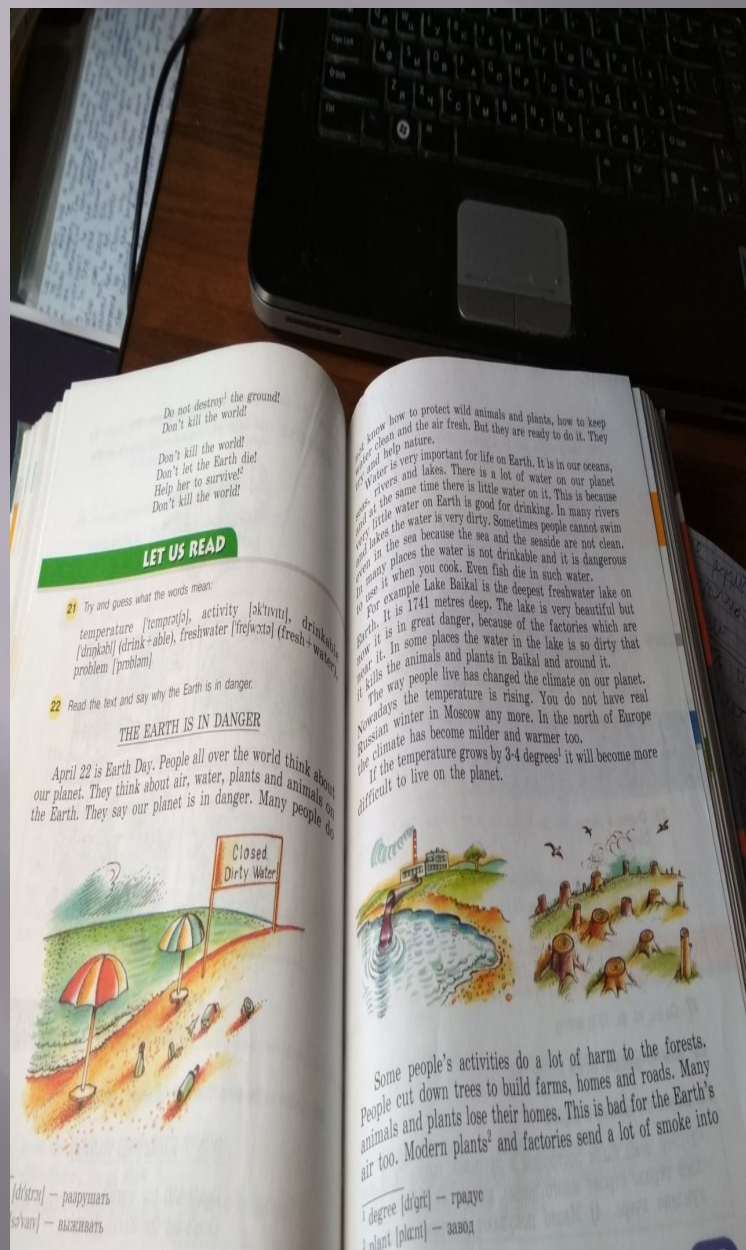

4. Do you know American equivalents [i'kwivə] of British words "biscuits", "sweets", "chips"?

British words biscuits, sweets, autumn

LET US TALK

25 Work in pairs. Imagine that you are preparing for a test on the topic "English-speaking Countries". Ask each other questions to see what things you remember about them. Find out: a) what English-speaking countries are; b) in what countries the English language is popular now; c) how English is used and is used as the international language; d) if English is the same in all English-speaking countries; e) what words are used in America instead of the words "biscuits", "sweets", "autumn".
