WHEN I THOUGHT THESE THINGS

COULDN'T GET ANYMORE COMPLICATED

Get something off your chest: To talk about something that has been bothering you for a long time; to admit something you have done wrong. I have to get this off my chest – I copied your answers on the exam.

Let the cat out of the bag: Tell a secret. Brady's surprise party is going to be great if you don't let the cat out of the bag.

Tip of the iceberg: The small easily visible part of a larger problem. The fact that Carrie is dating a member of the mafia is just the tip of the iceberg; she's also smuggling contraband into the country.

Fiddle while Rome burns – do some useless work when the situation is getting only worse. Taking a painkiller is like fiddling while Rome burns – it won't help solve the problem.

Go down the tubes – worsen, fail miserably. My date went down the tubes because I was talking too much about serious stuff.

Set your sights on – to be determined to do something. I set my sights on visiting London one more time in May.

OH GOD

KILL ME NOW
