

Put the verbs into the correct tenses

« Are you going (you/go) to the market tomorrow? »

« Yes, I go (go) there every Saturday. »

Put the verbs into the correct tenses

« The living room looks (look) nice »
« Yes, I 've just cleaned (just/clean) it. »

Put the verbs into the correct tenses

The children were sweeping (sweep) up the leaves when their mother called (call) them.

Put the verbs into the correct tenses

« Have you washed (you/wash) the car yet? »

« No, I 'm doing (do) it this afternoon. »

Put the verbs into the correct tenses

« Where is (be) the dog? »

« Jane 's just taken (just/take) it out for a walk. »

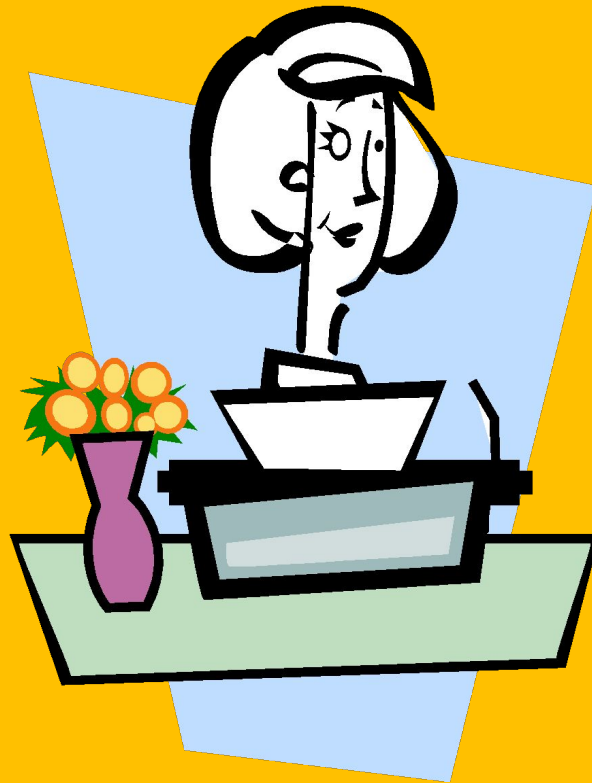

Put the verbs into the correct tenses

They noticed (notice) their friends as they were crossing (cross) the bridge.

Put the verbs into the correct tenses

The secretary was just finishing (just/finish)
the letter when her boss arrived (arrive)

Put the verbs into the correct tenses

We haven't had (not/have) a holiday
since the twins were (be) born.

Put the verbs into the correct tenses

I never go (never/go) to bull fights.
I hate (hate) them!

Put the verbs into the correct tenses

She 's been learning (learn) French since she came (come) to Paris.

Put the verbs into the correct tenses

Is your boyfriend coming (your boyfriend/come) to the party tonight?

Put the verbs into the correct tenses

« How long have you been living (live) in Paris? »
« Since 1996. »