- What to Include In a Student Resume

- First things first, let's talk about which sections to use on a student resume.

---

- The essential sections for a student resume are:

- Contact Information.

- Resume Objective

- Education

- Work Experience (if you have any)

- Skills

- If you don't have much work experience, you can also use the following optional sections to stand out:

- Projects
- Volunteering
- Awards and Qualifications
- Hobbies and Interests
- Languages

- Must have information:

- First Name, Last Name - Gavkhar Tojieva

- Phone Number - +998900010268

- Email address - gavhar_1979@mail.ru

- Location - Tashkent, Uzbekistan

- Optional information:

- Title - Your professional title. If you don't have a lot of experience, feel free to insert the position you're applying for or your current position - e.g. Business Graduate
- LinkedIn URL - Do you have an up-to-date LinkedIn profile? Mention it in your contact info! Sure, it's not a game-changer on it's own, but a good LinkedIn profile shows the recruiter that you're serious about your career.
- Social Media - Do you have a published portfolio online? For developers, this could be your GitHub, for designers - your Behance or Dribbble, and so on.
- Website / Blog - Do you have some form of online presence that's relevant to your job? Let's say you're applying for a job as a content writer, and you have a personal blog where you review tech products. You want to include a link to show off your writing skills.

- What NOT to include:

- Date of Birth - The HR manager doesn't need to know how old you are. Unless it was specifically requested in the job ad (e.g. bartender), keep your age off your resume.

- Unprofessional Email Address - List your professional email address (e.g. first name + last name), not whatever you made in grade school (jackisabigboy@gmail.com).
