

The soap opera that made the greatest impression on me is called - Red Bracelets

"Red Bracelets" tells us about the lives of six teenagers who are in the hospital for some reason. All of them have different diseases (such as cancer, anorexia, heart problems or just fractures). These guys are aware of the group aimed at helping and supporting each other in difficult moments. The children will have to go through a lot of terrible things, such as the death of one of the "bracelets", chemotherapy, terrible diagnoses, parents' divorce and so on. But all of them do not give up, fighting for their lives every minute. And in this group they find the strength to fight, the incentive to live.

I liked the plot, it is absolutely not drawn out, on the contrary, I want to watch more and more...This series is very sad, insanely sorry for the guys, at the same time you are amazed at how they do not stop fighting their diseases, they still enjoy life, hoping to defeat cancer and get out of the hospital to live a normal life. That's just not everyone succeeds... I think everyone needs to watch this series. look and think. think about everything
