WINTER
BY DOROTHY ALDIS

The street cars are
Like frosted cakes --
All covered up
With cold snowflakes.

The horses' hoofs
Scrunch on the street;
Their eyelashes
Are white with sleet.

And everywhere
The people go --
With faces tickled
By the snow.

A small illustration in the bottom right corner of the text block shows a snowman wearing a black top hat and having stick arms. To its left are two evergreen trees covered in snow, set against a light blue background with falling snowflakes.

Open your books at p.74.

There are three texts:

“Micro-sculptures”

“Chimpanzee Art”

“Urban Graffiti”

Read them and answer the questions

- Who is the creator of the smallest works of art on Earth?

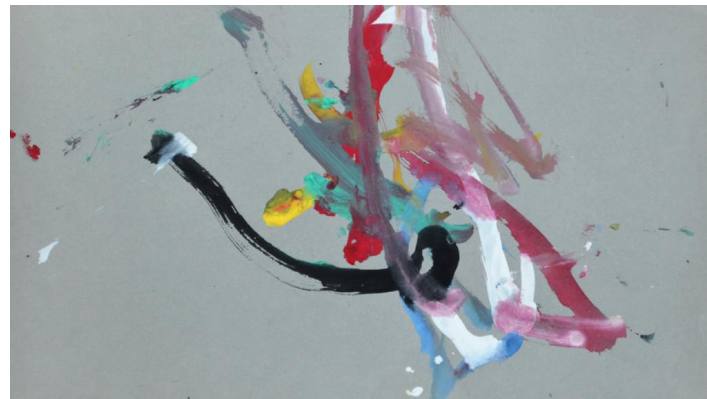

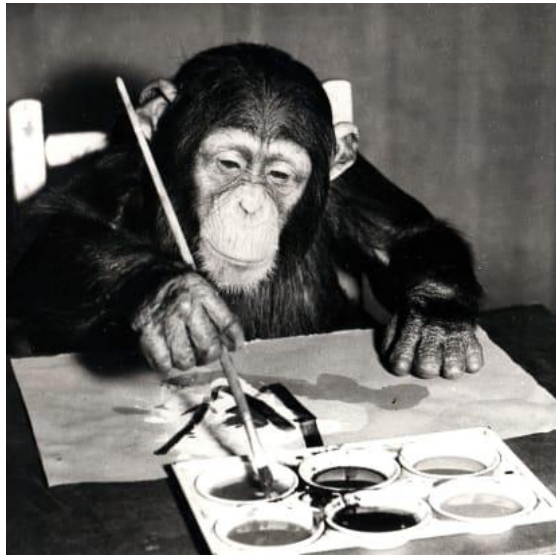

- What are his works?

- When did he start to do tiny things?

- How did he create his unbelievable micro-sculptures?

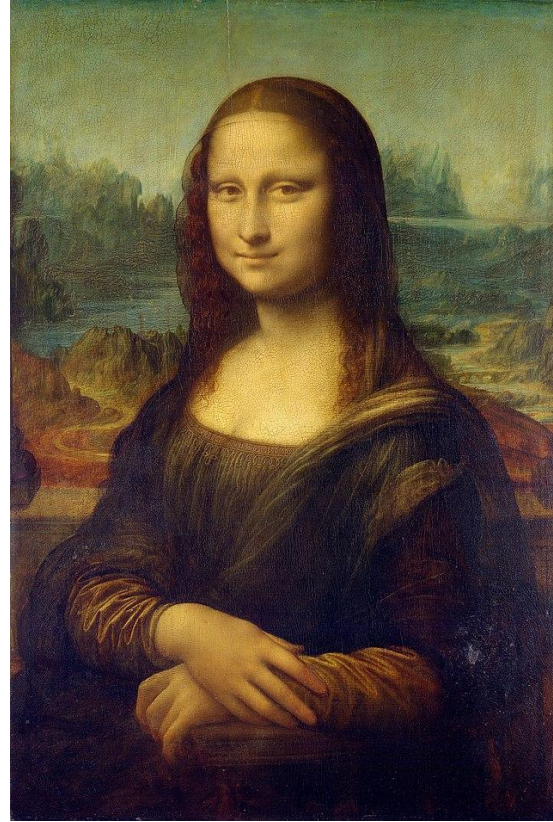

- What is the name of chimpanzee?
- When did Congo do his paintings?
- Who were the fans of Congo?
- Did Congo's art impress anybody?

- Who is the creator of graffiti?
- Do anybody think that graffiti is vandalism?
- Why did people want to keep his works on the walls of their buildings?

Thanks a lot
