WHY ELETS?

Elets is my hometown, but this doesn't prevent me from considering it the best place to travel!

It is worth coming once - and you will no longer be able to be indifferent to it!
Especially if I am your guide (જીવિ)જ

YOU

- THE WILL BEAUTIFUL ATMOSPHERE OF AN FIND: NATURE; ANCIENT CITY;
- DELICIOUS BREAD;
- LOTS OF AMAZING THINGS!

Elets is located in the Lipetsk region.
Since 2007 - "City of Military Glory".

The area of the city is 34 km<sup>2</sup>
Population: 1,447.76 people / km<sup>2</sup>

"A small Russian town, the same age as Tula, in many ways naive, simple-minded and promiscuous. You can talk a lot about Yelets, but it's better to see it once!"

"Everything in Yelets
apparently has its own rule."

"Ancient, mighty Yelets!
Taste for the glory story!
After all, he is part of a great power,
The old man and the boy knows that!"

INTERESTING FACTS:

1. All streets in Elets have Soviet and pre-Soviet names
2. Due to the constant attacks of the Tatars in Elets, many geographic names related to this appeared. For example, the Women's Market (now the market is the most ordinary, but before it was traded in women) or Luchok (metal hedgehog against cavalry).
3. The first elevator and railway school in Russia appeared here.

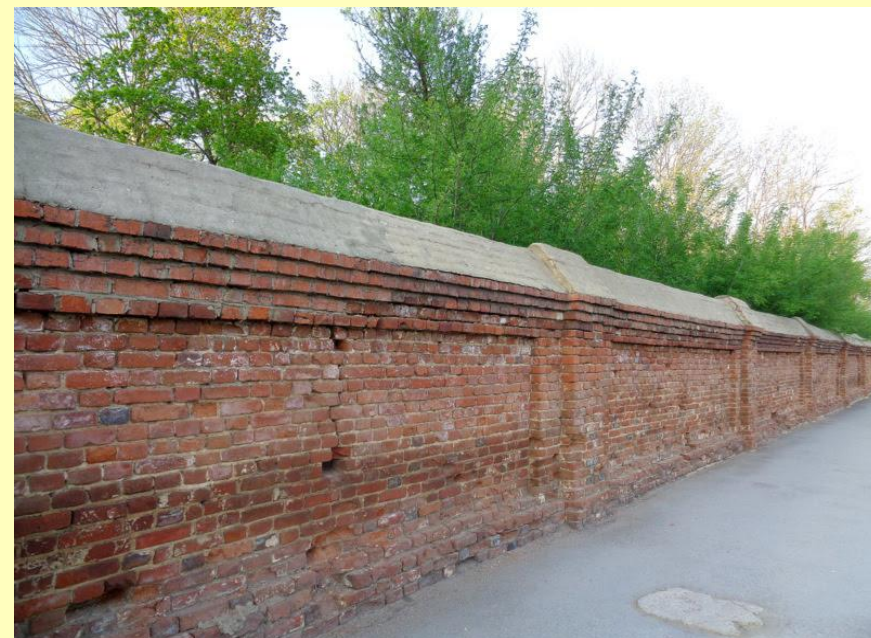

4. Elets lace is a very well-known product in its field, which has received recognition even at exhibitions in Paris.

5. During the Great Patriotic War, Elets could become a separate republic.

6. Such famous people as the writer I. A. Bunin, the composer T. N. Khrennikov, N. N. Zhukov lived in Elets.

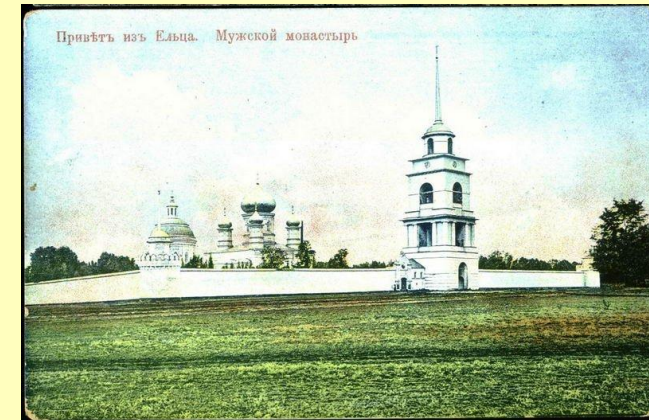

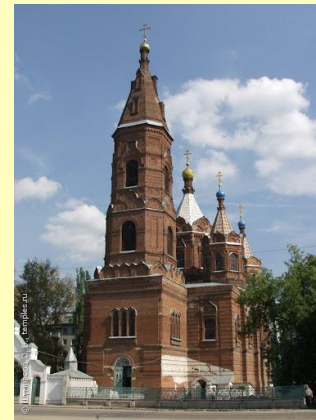

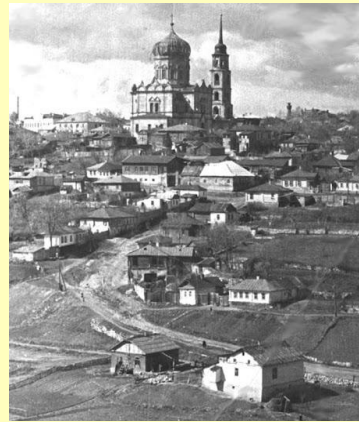

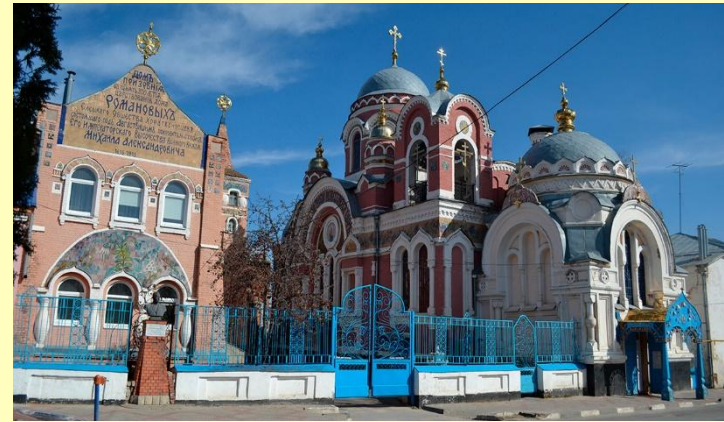

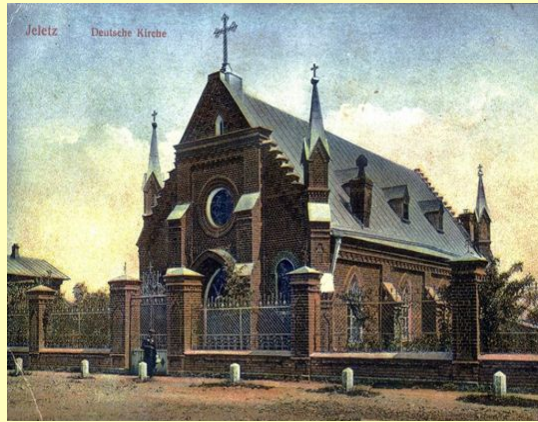

7. There used to be a Catholic church in Yelets.
