

CULTURE AND ART OF JAPAN

Completed by:

Klapouschak Sofia 8”A”

Nigmatullina Anastasiya 8”A”

Saurov Andrey 8”A”

Pshenichnikova Daria 8”A”

Purpose

---

- To learn of features of the culture and art of Japan

Tasks

---

- To acquaint people with the characteristics and traditions of Japan
- To talk about the art, culture and architecture of the country of the rising sun

HISTORY OF JAPAN AND ITS LITERATURE

- Japan is located on a large island.
- The main God in Japan is Amaterasu. The honor of her, the country was named Nihon – “the beginning of the sun”.
- Japanese literature gave the world such poetic genres as tanka, hokku, haiku.

Japanese flag

Amaterasu

ART OF JAPAN AND ANIME AS A CULTURE

A frame from anime “Namakura Gatana”
(1917)

- The main task of painting in Japan is to convey the spirit through images.
- Japan painting is divided into many periods.
- The creation of anime – an important part of Japanese culture.
- One of the first anime was “Namakura Gatana” about the samurai.
- Today, anime is an part of world culture, animated at children and adults alike.

The yukata

Hakama pants

Izumo temple

JAPAN'S CLOTHES AND ARCHITECTURE

- In Japan there are two types of clothing: national and ordinary.
- Japan has very interesting architecture.
- Japan's ancient temple buildings are notable for their dim colors and decorations.
- The most famous ancient buildings that have survived to the present day are Ise and Izumo

CONCLUSION

- Japan is one of the economic leaders of the modern world.
- Country supplies various means of transportation, electronics and equipment.
- We use many Japanese words in our speech, such as karaoke, origami, sushi and others.

Toyota Supra(Japanese sportcar)

Japanese words

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENTION