Grammar

1. A mobile often won't work because there's no signal.

2. You'll be safe inside your car.

3. Move away from the other bees – they might sting you too.

We speak about future.

We make predictions about future.

We use will (won't) when we are sure.

We use might when we are not sure.

1. A mobile often won't work because there's no signal.
2. You'll be safe inside your car.
3. Move away from the other bees – they might sting you too.

Won't = will not

'll = will

Use bare infinitive (without to) after will and might.

B, p. 147

1. Will/won't
2. Might/will
3. Might not/won't
4. Might not/won't
5. Might/will
6. Might/will

Ex. 3D

1. -
2. Won't
3. Might
4. Will
5. Might
6. Might
7. Might not
8. will