

The Tower of London

First the White Tower was built in 1097

The walls and other buildings were built in the XIII-th century

It was a castle and a fortress

The most beautiful bridge – Tower bridge - is situated near the Tower

Then it was a mint

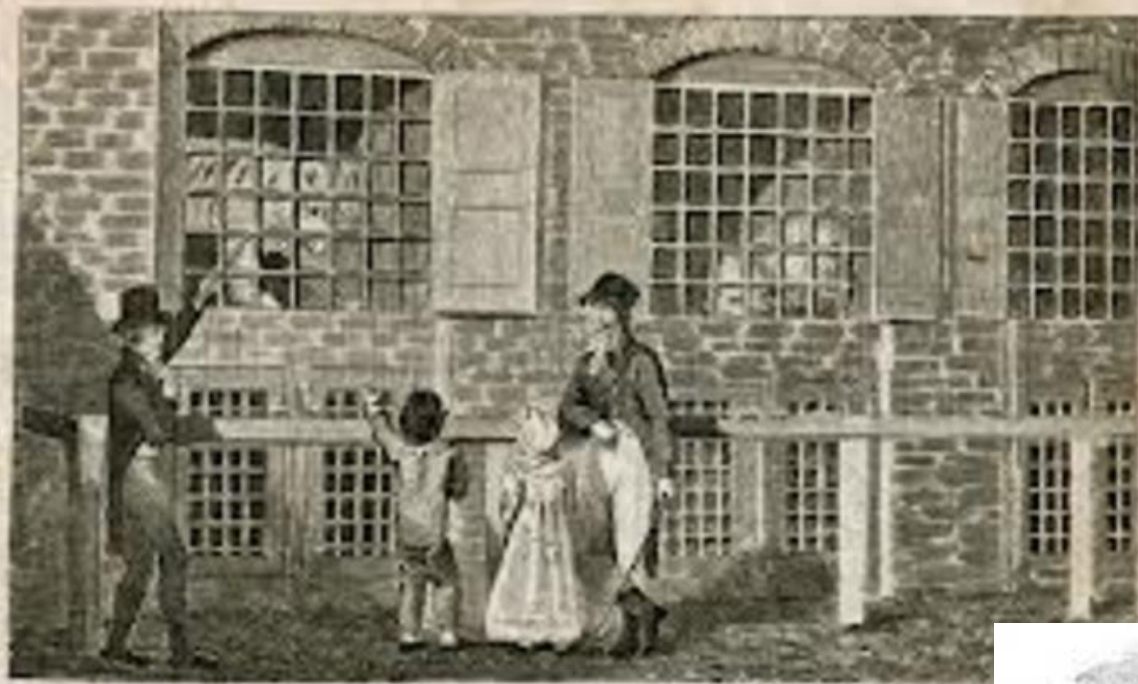

It was a Royal Menagerie since 1830

ROYAL
MENAGERIE,
Tower of London

The Public are respectfully informed, that the above Noble Collection of FOREIGN Beasts, Birds, &c. are open to inspection, upon payment of SIXPENCE ONLY!! which, from the numerous additions lately made, will prove an admirable treat to those who are desirous of beholding the Wonders of Nature!

bridgeman
ART CO.

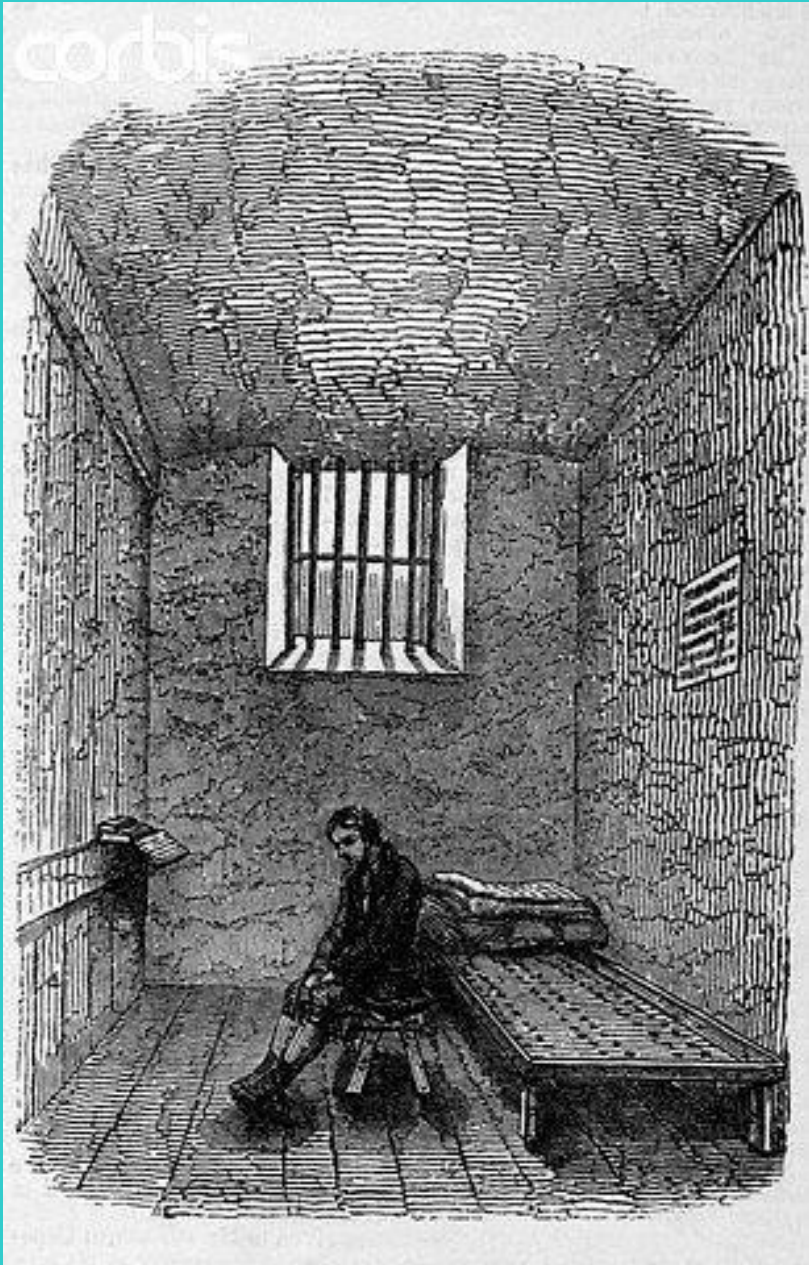

The Menagerie in the Tower.

For many years the Tower was a prison.

The prison gate

Many people died there

Now it's a museum with different exhibitions

The Tower is famous for black ravens

The Yeomen of the Guard known as “beefeaters” in Tudor dress uniform keep watch

Ceremony of the Keys

Sentry: "Halt! Who comes there?"

Chief Warder: "The keys."

Sentry: "Whose keys?"

Chief Warder: "Queen Elizabeth's keys."

Sentry: "Pass Queen Elizabeth's Keys. All's well."

(On the top of the Stairs)

Chief Warder: "God preserve Queen Elizabeth."

Sentry: "Amen!"

Answer the questions

1. What is the Tower of London?
2. What was it many years ago?
3. Do any animals live in the Tower?
4. What can the tourists see there?
5. What bridge is situated near the Tower?

