How many palm trees are on the island?

A brass padlock is shown against a blue gradient background. A white rectangular overlay is positioned in the center, partially covering the padlock. Inside this overlay is a numeric keypad with two rows of five red square buttons each. Each button contains a white number. The top row shows numbers 1 through 5, and the bottom row shows numbers 6 through 0. The numbers are in a bold, sans-serif font. The padlock itself is made of brass and has a circular shackle at the top.
