

PHRASAL VERBS

LOOK

to

rely on somebody
or something

for

try to find something

back

think about
something that happened in the past

forward to

feel pleased and excited about something that is going to happen

in

visit a person or place for a short time

out

watch what is happening and
be careful

through

read something
quickly and briefly

ahead

think about what is going to happen in the future and make plans

on

watch something without taking part yourself

round

turn to look at
something behind you

up

find the information in a book, on a map or a
timetable

after

take care of
something or someone

Choose the correct option.

on

to

back

When my grandma looks back she can see how happy she was in her childhood.

Choose the correct option.

NEXT

forward to

for

to

Our parents are looking forward to seeing us
again this summer.

Choose the correct option.

back

out

on

If Tom doesn't look out, he'll get fired soon.

Choose the correct option.

on

to

back

When we had a bump last week many passers-by stopped to look on.

Choose the correct option.

NEXT

back

through

on

I woke up earlier than usual to look through my notes.

Choose the correct option.

round

to

for

Jane and she looked round and smiled at me when I called her.

Choose the correct option.

back

after

on

I look after my neighbour's kids to earn some money.

Choose the correct option.

in

to

for

Henry has found the keys
he was looking for
all morning.

Choose the correct option.

back

ahead

on

They'll have to look
ahead a few years
before they make a decision.

Choose the correct option.

on

to

up

If you don't know any words, look them
up in a dictionary.

Choose the correct option.

in

to

for

Yesterday afternoon I looked in on my
grandpa on my way
from work.

Choose the correct option.

THE END

back

to

on

If I were you, I wouldn't look to your
boyfriend for help.

