The background of the image is a repeating pattern of various fast-food items. It includes slices of pepperoni pizza, red containers filled with french fries (each with a small yellow smiley face on the front), whole burgers, soft-serve ice cream cones, and chicken drumsticks. These items are scattered across a white background.

The background of the image is filled with a repeating pattern of stacks of green banknotes. Each stack is bound with a yellow rubber band. The stacks are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with some stacks slightly offset from others, creating a sense of depth and abundance. The green color of the banknotes is vibrant, and the yellow of the rubber bands is bright. The overall effect is one of wealth and financial success.
