

"Like and Follow"

- How is the main character introduced? What does this tell us about what will happen in the story?
- Explain why the boy behaves the way he does. What motivates him?
- What pattern of behaviour can be seen in the story?
- What transformations / changes in the main character occur over the course of the story?
- What motivates the boy to finally resist the temptation to use his phone?
- How does his motivation change by the end of the film?
- When you compare and contrast the main character at the beginning and at the end of the film, do you find any similarities?
- What is the key moment in the story, the scene which brings

- In what ways is the boy's behaviour like your own or like the behaviour of someone you know?
- In what ways are the problems faced by the boy similar to the problems you struggle with?
- What helps the boy solve the problem?
- If you had a chance to ask the main character a question, what would it be?
- What life lessons can be learned from the choices made by the main character in this story?
- Does the film have a message?
- How can you apply the lesson the film teaches to your own life?
- What elements of irony exist in the story?
- The film is full of symbols. What does each stand for?

- The film is full of symbols. What does each stand for?

