What are these words mean?

1. When an animal gives food to its babies

2. When people run after an animal and kill it for food or sport

3. When two animals are angry they do this

4. When an animal makes a big hole

5. To find and stop an animal that is trying to escape

ANIMAL BEHAVIOUR

What do animals do to survive?

Hunt for food, hide from other animals, find a safe place to sleep,

The beaver builds a dam to live there .

The new vocabulary:

dig- копать
build- строить
catch- ловить
hunt –охотиться
hide- прятаться
save - спасать
feed- кормить

Exercise 1 .p.36

1 Check the meaning of the verbs in bold. Then look at photos 1—6 and choose the correct verbs.

1 The blackbird is feeding / eating its chicks.
2 The beaver is digging / building a dam.
3 The chameleon is catching / helping an insect with its tongue.
4 The fish is fighting / protecting the other fish.
5 The bear is hunting / hiding the salmon.
6 A falcon is playing with / chasing a group of smaller birds.

Blackbirds feed their chicks every day for [1]____ weeks. In the second photo, the chameleon is catching a [2]____. The chameleon sometimes catches insects from a distance of [3]____ centimetres! The big fish is a goliath grouper and it is [4]____ metres long. It isn't attacking the small [5]____, it's protecting them. In the last photo, a falcon is hunting small birds. It's a very fast bird and it sometimes [6]____ at 390 kilometres an hour.

Write this exercise in your copy-book

2 Complete the sentences with names of animals. Compare your answers with a partner.

Owls hunt at night. They eat small animals.

1 ____ hide in trees. They haven't got legs.

2 ____ catch fish. They sleep in the winter.

3 ____ don't feed their young. They can change colour when they want to hide.

4 ____ hunt smaller fish. They sometimes attack humans.

5 ____ protect their babies from sharks. They sing to each other.

The next task is to read the text 'Danger! Humans!' in your Student books p.34 try to understand and be ready to answer the questions