

Imaginary situations

I can talk about imaginary situations and things I would like to change.

Imagine you are extremely rich. 1. Where do you live? 2. Do you work? 3. Who are your friends?

What is stately home?

A large, old house that usually has beautiful furniture, decorations, and gardens.

1 SPEAKING Read the fact file about Castle Howard, a stately home in the north of England. Would you like to live in a house like this? Why? / Why not?

Built around 1700, it has 145 rooms.

- It is the private home of the Howard family, who have lived there for over 300 years.
- It has been open to the public since 1952.

I would like ...

- to allow people to visit
- to get bored
- to invite hundred people
- to build great bowling alley

Q2.09 Read and listen to the dialogue. What two outdoor and indoor changes do the speakers mention?

- Alfie This is an amazing place. I wish I lived here.
- Macy Me too. If only I were a member of the Howard family!
- Alfie But if it were my house, I wouldn't allow people to visit.
- Macy That's mean! You'd get bored on your own.
- Alfie Oh, I'd let my friends visit, of course. But not the public.
- Macy If you had a party, you could invite hundreds of people!
- Alfie I know. The parties would be better if I made a few changes, though.
- Macy What kind of changes?
- Alfie Well, if those trees weren't there, there'd be room for a swimming pool!
- Macy You could make some changes inside as well. I mean, look at this corridor.
- Alfie The Antique Passage, you mean?
- Macy Yes. If you took away all the statues, you could build a great bowling alley there!

If we offered sushi,

and<sup>2</sup>

We use the second conditional to talk about an imaginary situation or event and its result.

the party would be better

If we offered sushi, the party would be better.

past simple tense for the situation or event We use the 1 would + infinitive without to for the result.

Underline all the examples of the second conditional in the dialogue

- Alfie This is an amazing place. I wish I lived here.
- Macy Me too. If only I were a member of the Howard family!
- Alfie But if it were my house, I wouldn't allow people to visit.
- Macy That's mean! You'd get bored on your own.
- Alfie Oh, I'd let my friends visit, of course. But not the public.
- Macy If you had a party, you could invite hundreds of people!
- Alfie I know. The parties would be better if I made a few changes, though,
- Macy What kind of changes?
- Alfie Well, if those trees weren't there, there'd be room for a swimming pool!
- Macy You could make some changes inside as well. I mean, look at this corridor.
- Alfie The Antique Passage, you mean?
- Macy Yes. If you took away all the statues, you could build a great bowling alley there!

4.3 I wish ... , If only ...

We use I wish ... or If only ... with the past simple to say that we want a situation to be different from how it really is.

l live in a village. I wish I lived in a big city.

Notice that you can use were instead of was after I wish ... or If only ... .

It's Monday today, but I wish it were Saturday.

We use I wish ... or If only ... with would + the infinitive without to to say that we want somebody (or something) to behave differently.

I wish she wouldn't shout. If only the phone would stop ringing.

Explain the difference in meaning between these two sentences.

a I wish my penfriend spoke English.

My penfriend cannot speak English
