AND THIS PERSON ALSO)

BUT YOU LIVE IN RUSSIA!

NEW YEAR.

The history of the New Year holiday is quite interesting. The modern celebration is rightfully considered one of the most beloved, nationwide. In addition, traditional feasts and obligatory weekends, which provide an opportunity not only to walk, but also to relax, contribute to the popularity of the holiday. Long before January 1 is approaching, colorful garlands and decorations turn the familiar environment into a fairy tale that invariably brings joy to both children and adults. We just know about its origin, what is the history of the New Year in Russia?

AFTER THE ADOPTION OF CHRISTIANITY AND UNTIL 1700, THE BYZANTINE SYSTEM OF CHRONOLOGY WAS IN EFFECT IN RUSSIA (COINCIDES WITH THE JULIAN CALENDAR) - "FROM THE CREATION OF THE WORLD" OR FROM 5508 BC. THE ONSET OF THE NEW YEAR WAS CELEBRATED IN MARCH, AND FROM THE 15TH CENTURY ON ON SEPTEMBER 1. ON THIS DAY, ON THE CATHEDRAL SQUARE OF THE MOSCOW KREMLIN, A SOLEMN CEREMONY "ABOUT THE BEGINNING OF A NEW SUMMER" AND A CHURCH SERVICE WERE HELD WITH THE PARTICIPATION OF THE TSAR, PATRIARCH, REPRESENTATIVES OF THE CLERGY, NOBILITY, SERVICE PEOPLE.

NEW YEAR TRADITIONS

- It is accepted that preparation for the holiday begins long before the main action. One of the old family hobbies is making dumplings. Sometimes the sculpting process takes more than one day. It is a popular pastime to stuff a few dumplings with unusual ingredients. Sugar is used for sweet life, pepper for spiciness, dough for abundance on the table.

NEW YEAR'S DISHES

jellied meat with horseradish, fruit cuts, gingerbread cookies, meat and fish dishes, Russian salad and other salads. One of the New Year's dishes taken from the British is the tradition of roasting duck
