

Sala Silvermine

In the Swedish town of Sala in the former mine at a depth of 155 meters was opened hotel Sala Silvermine.

Suite does not imply anything extra, all Spartan: furniture-bed and chair, lamps. In the morning you are served breakfast in the form of a waiter working the mines, and then you can return to the ground.

The hotel warns about temperature in the shaft (2 degrees) and the need to take warm clothes, which will be useful during the tour.

Mobile phones do not work here, but there is a radio to communicate with the hotel staff. A toilet will have to walk 50 meters.

Room for two persons, the price per day roughly $ 600.
