The beginning of our exciting trip

We flew to Moscow and we needed to spend the night. Our keen eye caught the hotel "Novotel"

When we woke up we made an ingenious decision - to have breakfast in the restaurant "Kote Jordan"

London Hello

Arriving in London, without hesitation, we went to check in to the hotel and this time our way turned out to be "Sloane Place"

While we checked into the hotel, hunger took its toll and we decided to go to the restaurant of the popular chef Gordon Ramsay, and on a lucky occasion we managed to meet him and even take a photo

London is so beautiful that getting around the city by car is a big mistake.

The first attraction was the London Tower

The next place was Buckingham Palace, while we walked on the street it got dark, but this is only better, because London at night is incomparable

Surprised by London we went to a restaurant called "Hereford Road"

First night in London

Night time has come, but in London night is needed not for sleep, but in order to see the London Eye

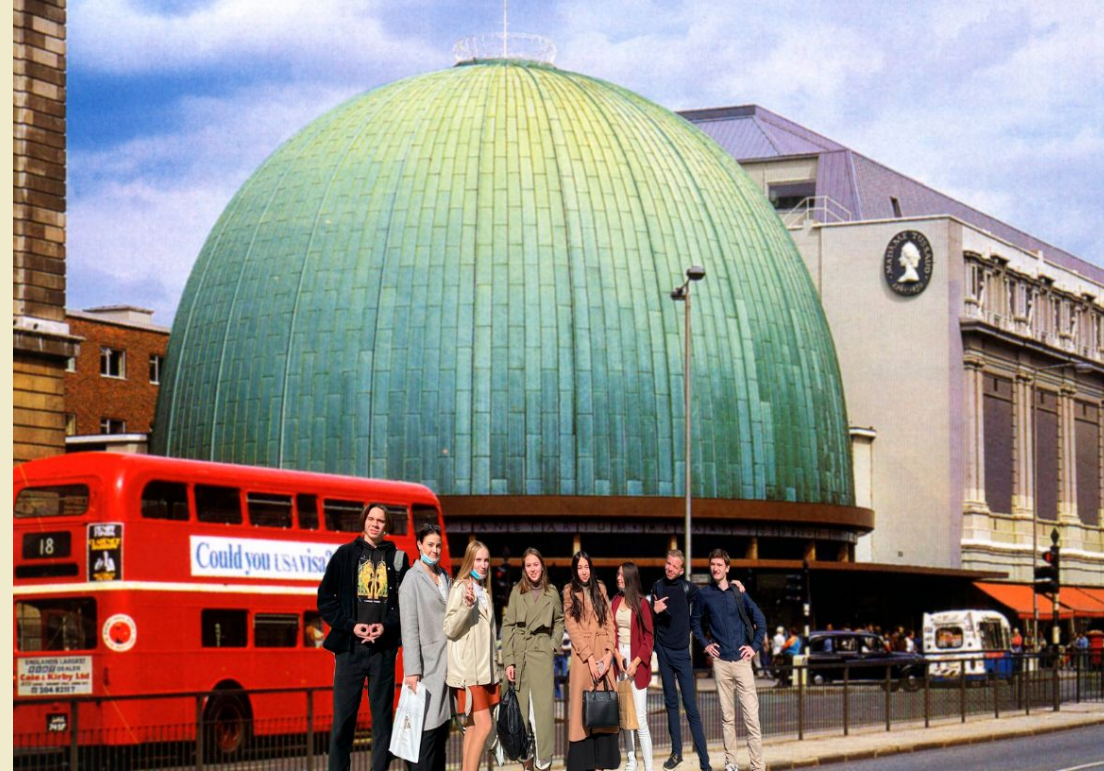

But we still had grandiose plans for tomorrow and it was decided to go to the hotel.

Morning can't be bad if you in London

We started our morning with breakfast at the "Hibiscus" restaurant. After a snack, we went to Madame Tussauds museum

The wax figures are so enticing that we completely forgot about lunch and ran to dinner at the "Pollen Street Social" with sparkling heels

Plants can be wonderful too

The next point was the Botanical Gardens

They are beautiful not only from the inside, but also from the outside.

As if you are floating in the sky

Having looked at natural creatures, we wanted to look at what man created and the best solution was to go to the cable car

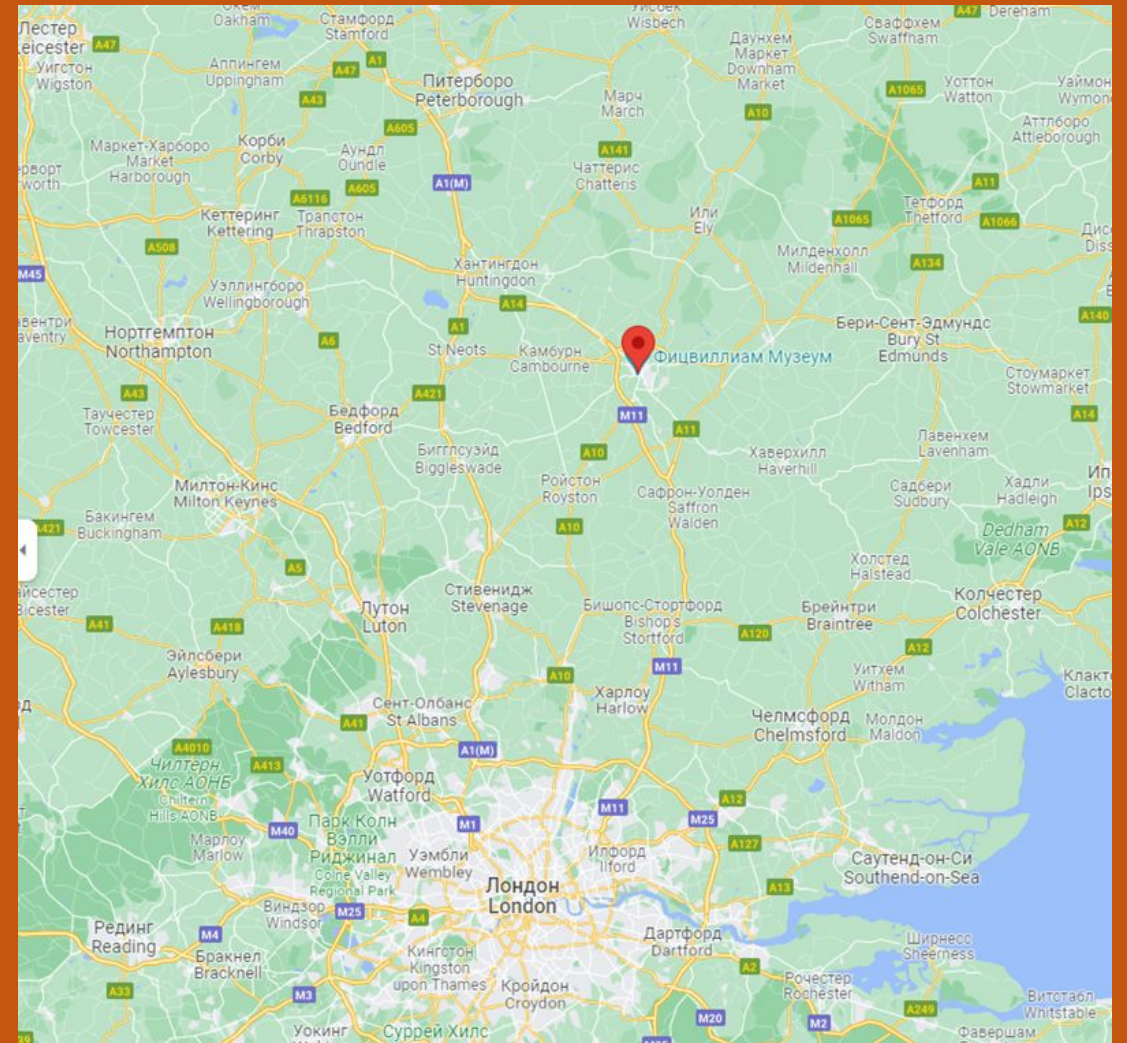

After getting a share of adrenaline, we got hungry and went to the restaurant "Hakkasan"

After that we rushed to the hotel, as we had a hard day

London goodbye ... hello Cambridge!

After breakfast at Alain Ducasse's restaurant, we boarded the train and went to Cambridge

Everyone would like to study here

The first place we visited was the University of Cambridge

But it was not one educational place for today, the next Kettles Yard is an art school

Educational institutions are good, but what if we look into the “backyard”?

And if we look into the "backyard", we will find one of the coolest parks

Day is a new day and new city

Today we arrived in Oxford and chose a lovely hotel called the "Royal Oxford Hotel"

We decided to relax at the hotel and dine at the "Spiced Roots" restaurant.

But you can't waste your time

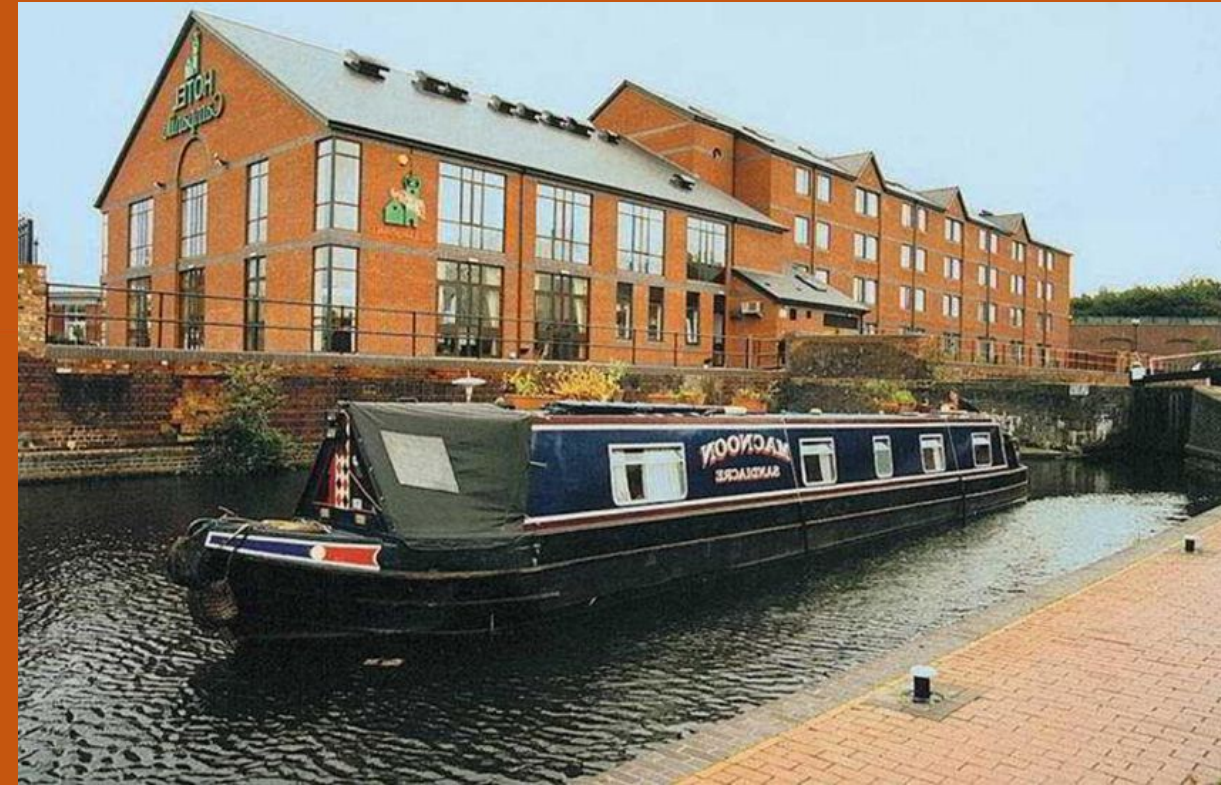

Tourist activity began with the University of Oxford, the next was the Ashmolean Museum, and the day ended with Oxford castle and prison

We move so fast that no police can catch us

Today we spent in Oxford, but in the evening we were already in the city of Birmingham, at the Campanile Hotel

And of course there is nothing better than a delicious meal and going to bed, and in order to have a tasty meal, a restaurant called "Adam's" helped us.

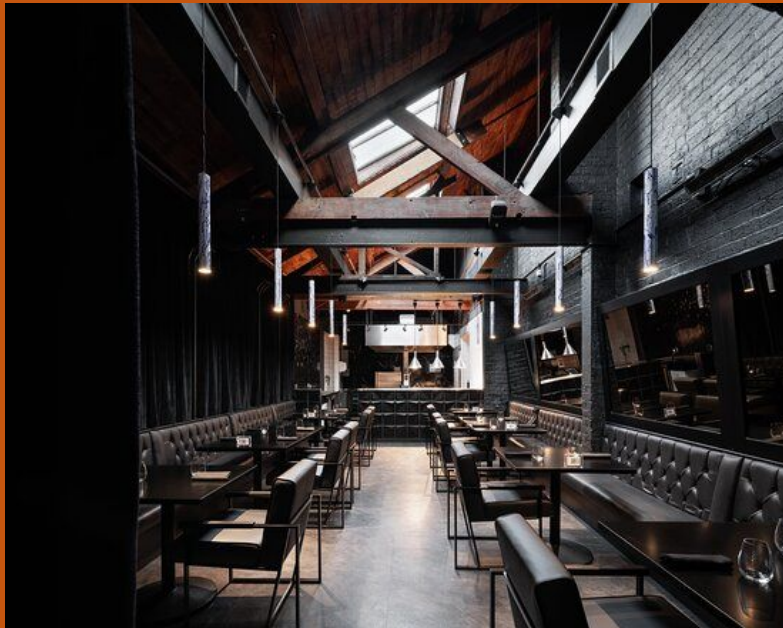

So much food, it seems to me that going back to regular food will be morally difficult.

After a delicious breakfast at Purnell's Restaurant, we moved to Birmingham back to backs

Lunch was not long in coming and we stopped at The Wilderness

Art is primarily paintings, but old techniques are also art.

The second attraction for today has become Museum & Art gallery, not finding another interesting restaurant, we ate Adam's

Our final visit for today was at the National motorcycle museum. After looking at all these works of mechanics, only one question is asked how it was so well preserved

Cities are similar at first glance, but this is only a first glance ...

After having breakfast at the already familiar Purnell's Restaurant, we went to a really wonderful place

And on the agenda we have Winterbourne house & garden. If you spend your old age, then only here

The end is near, but it hasn't come

The next place which we visited was the museum of the jewelery quarter. I think that such jewelry deserves a separate exhibition.

All these delights evoke a lot of emotions, and delicious food also evokes a wide range of emotions, especially when you are eating in a fun company. Having agreed on this thought, we went to The Wilderness restaurant

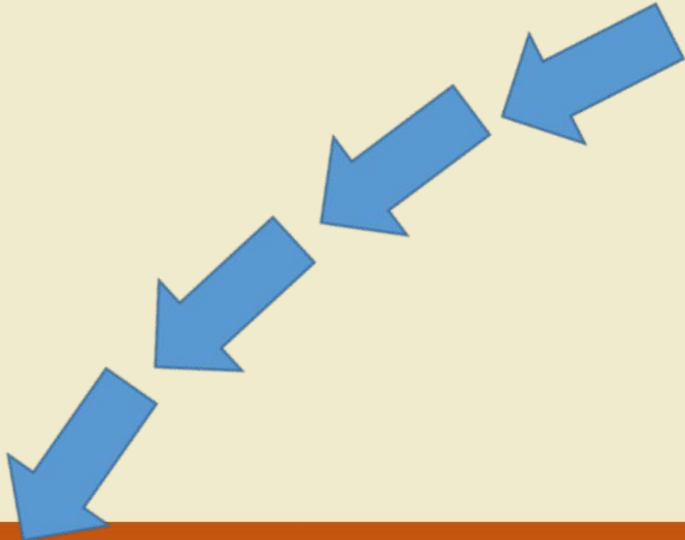

The last fight

The last place where we wanted to spend time was the symphony hall, or rather the Rick Wakeman concert

At the end of the concert, we decided to visit Purnell's Restaurant, even the waiters were happy to see us again

Way home

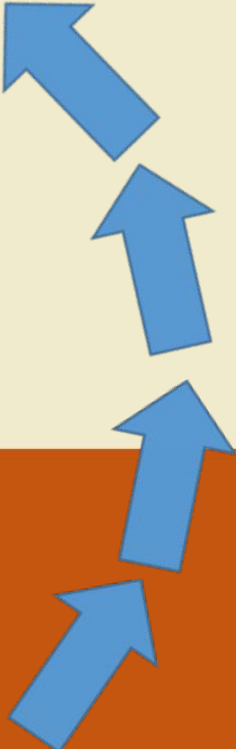

Domodedovo Moscow

Astrakhan airport

Birmingham airport

In conclusion:

I would like to say that it is good in English cities, but Astrakhan is better (but this is not certain)

bye bye
