

Lindfors

From: Bek Vyacheslav, Food Critic
Object: Lindfors, St. Petersburg,
Kamennostrovsky ave., 54/31
Date: March 2

- The purpose of this report is to evaluate the good and bad sides of the Lindfors cafe, located in the center of St. Petersburg. At: Kamennostrovsky ave., 54/31.

- Lindfors offers a large selection of pies, salads, hot dishes and drinks. All the dishes are delicious and beautifully served. However, the prices of drinks are inflated, and in the evening most of the pies are gone.

- The Lindfors staff is not always friendly, from time to time they impose completely unnecessary dishes. In extreme cases, the staff can be rude, or even worse: refuse to accept the order.

- The cafe is made in classic English style, green and white walls and comfortable wooden chairs. A clean room and comfortable lighting create a cozy atmosphere.

- Despite the fact that there are many cafes in St. Petersburg, Lindfors is certainly the best in terms of cost and taste, but the staff leaves much to be desired. Therefore, I would recommend it to those who like to eat tasty and inexpensive, without paying attention to others.
