An online review

- 1 Read the review of a smartwatch. What can you do with it?

GEAR REVIEW

PRODUCT

The new GQO Smartwatch

DESIGN

The latest GQO Smartwatch is available in three colours: black, white and, the favourite, 'champagne', which is really cool.

PERFORMANCE

The battery can last for up to seven days and the touchscreen is a special material which doesn't reflect the sun, so the image is always clear and it's big enough to see a good amount of text. You can send and receive messages and email, view and update your social media networks and even monitor your heart rate. Of course you can to see what time it is!

EASE OF USE

The smartwatch is really easy to use – with touchscreens and voice commands. This latest version has a button on the side which makes it easier to change what you see on the screen so you don't have to fiddle with your finger. The watch is made of a rubber strap which you can change if you like.

EXTRA FEATURES

The GQO Smartwatch is totally waterproof, so you can wear it in the shower. The case is made of metal, so it's very strong, and you can buy a wireless headset to receive and make calls. The headset is available in three different colours.

52 Unit 5

OVERALL OPINION
Smartwatches aren't cheap but this one isn't too expensive and the range of functions makes it very attractive.

- 2 Read the review again. Are these sentences true or false? Correct the false sentences.

Students' works

Product: Casio G-SHOCK DW-5600E

Design: the brand new Casio watch available in the spectacular range of materials, such as gold, silver and, my favourite, resin, which looks fabulous. Actually, it based on the original 1983 G-SHOCK design, the square watch face is an iconic classic. Tough, functional and fashionable.

Performance: The battery lasts approximately 2 years. Also the watch has bunch of functions like alarm clock, auto calendar and countdown timer.

Ease of use: the watch is really easy to use. G-SHOCK has a special technology inside, which provides easy access to the information on the screen in the sunlight or when it's dark outside. In addition, buttons are easy enough to push in contrast with other models.

Extra features: DW-5600E is totally waterproof, so you can wear it in the shower, or swim, or even dive. You can buy it in different modifications, that affords to create your own style. Besides, G-SHOCK has a unique protection technology, called G-SHOCK protection. It protects against impact and vibration. Moreover, Casio has a mineral glass, so it's resisted from scratching.

Overall opinion: watches are not cheap, but this one has a good range of functions and it'll serve longer, than cheaper versions. In my view point, it's good value for money. Highly recommended.

Overall opinion

This loudspeaker has two options. One of them is "Extra bass". When turn it on sound becomes better. And also the loud of sound is well, so you don't need to make it on the biggest one. The second option is "lightning". You can switch lights and have parties at night! The most important that loudspeaker will tell you when it needs charging.

If you enjoy having parties and listening to music with a good sound, you will like this loudspeaker.

An online review
Product: XP-pen graphics tablet
Design: It is all black with red illuminated buttons. Looks so modern and cool!
Performance: The size of the screen is perfect for drawing. The tablet doesn't get too much place on the table — that's really important. The colours on the screen are a bit cooler than they are on the laptop's or phone's screen but you can easily have all the shades like you want them to be. Unfortunately, you can't use the tablet without a laptop or computer. Also, it is too fragile to take outside. What a pity! The fact which disappointed me a lot is that you need to redownload the drivers for tablet when you connect

EASE OF USE: This phone is user-friendly, and you can set your own settings just tapping some buttons on the screen.

EXTRA FEATURES: You can buy a case for your phone to protect the charging port. Also, it has a Near Field Communication, or NFC, so you can pay with it.

Moreover, this telephone isn't that cheap, but its working features are very attractive.

Product: loudspeaker JBL charge 3

Design: it's available in five colours: black, blue, gray, red and green.

Performance: In general, the sound quality is good and the sound is well-balanced. Another good feature is that the loudspeaker volume is really loud and you can control the volume on the phone and on the loudspeaker. The feature of this loudspeaker is that it has several modes: normal, stereo and party. But the coolest thing is that it can be connected to another speaker and the sound will be even louder and more voluminous.

Ease of use: This speaker has a bluetooth and can be worn everywhere. Loudspeaker holds the battery for a very long time. One of the biggest advantages of this speaker is that it is waterproof.

Extra features: it is made of metal, on top is a special waterproof fiber, on the side are metal bits covered with rubber bands on the side

Overall opinion: At 64 pounds this loudspeaker is great value for money, and perfect for me!

Product: Loudspeaker

Design: This cool loudspeaker is unfortunately available only in one colour: light grey. But it looks cool. 🍑

Performance: The battery can last for a really big period of time. It's about 2-2.5 weeks if you use it every day. Loudspeaker is made of plastic, special rubber and it's metal somewhere. This rubber makes loudspeakers waterproof for a small amount of water, so it doesn't mean that you can use it under the water. ?

Ease of use: It's really easy to use this gadget. Because there are special icons on the button. So, if you don't understand instructions, it will help you. 🍑

LISTENING

1 Work in pairs. Compare your answers. Decide which area of life is being discussed in each sentence.

2 Underline the words in each sentence that are part of the same metaphor. The first one is done for you.

3 With your partner, answer the questions.

1 Who else can reduce your defences against a virus?
2 How can we combat poverty / disease / addiction?
3 Who are the big guns in sport in your country?
4 How you ever had to battle for something? What? Did you win or give in?
5 What companies, political parties or ideas are gaining ground at the moment? Why?

LISTENING

8 Work in groups. You are going to hear four news stories based on the headlines below. Discuss what you think has happened. Try to use vocabulary from Exercises 1 and 2.

SOFT DRINK SPY TRIAL STARTS

TV presenter defends himself against harassment allegations

Government policy hit by victory for liberty groups

PEACE BREAKS OUT OVER PIG STATUE

9 Listen to the four news stories and find out what actually happened. Then work in pairs and rank the stories from 1 (= least serious) to 4 (= most serious).

10 Listen again. Which sentences are true?

1 Dan Craddock has been found guilty of spying.
2 Mr Craddock was a manager for Pepsi.
3 Soft Drinks has a bigger market share now.
4 Jonas Bakeman is in danger of losing his job.
5 Bakeman spoke to the press and fully apologised.
6 Ms Campbell claims she didn't initiate the affair.
7 A court decided people don't have to submit to body scans at airports.
8 One lobby group funded the woman's defence.
9 The government has accepted the ruling.
10 Pig farming is an important industry in Paulston.
11 Both sides in the dispute inflicted some kind of damage.
12 The sides agreed a settlement between themselves.

11 As a class, choose two of the following statements to debate. Then divide into groups – half the class will agree with the two statements and the other half will disagree.

- You should never negotiate with terrorists.
- There should never be international intervention in a country's internal affairs.
- Wars are a necessary evil.
- You can't win the war on drugs.
- Peaceful protests are the only ones that work.
- Companies are too concerned with market share and growth.
- There should be more restrictions on advertising.

12 In your group, prepare your ideas and think how you might knock down your opponent's arguments. Choose a spokesperson for your group.

13 Now have the debate about the first statement. The spokesperson for the 'for' group should speak for two minutes. Then the 'against' spokesperson should speak. When they have finished, anyone can comment or ask questions.

14 Repeat Exercise 13 with the other statement.

1

A manager of the soft drinks company Jazz Drinks is standing trial today accused of spying for its biggest rival, Pit-Pots. Dan Craddock, a high-level manager at Jazz, is said to have sold crucial strategic information to Pit-Pots for over two million dollars. Over recent years, the two companies have been engaged in a fierce battle to capture market share, pouring money into ever more extravagant advertising campaigns. Last year was Jazz Drinks' best ever, and, as Pit-Pots was losing ground, it is claimed they secretly recruited Mr Craddock, a sales director at Jazz, to pass on information on marketing and pricing strategy for the coming year. Mr Craddock denies the charges. The case continues.

2

The TV presenter Jonas Bakeman is fighting to save his career after stories appeared of his affair with a researcher on his programme, 'Justice Fight'. As reporters [redacted] outside his home, he [redacted] a statement expressing regret over the affair, but defended himself against allegations that he'd initiated it after [redacted] the woman, Petra Campbell. He claimed the affair had been brief and he had simply [redacted] to a foolish moment of weakness at a production party. However, Ms Campbell has made available evidence that she [redacted] with emails and text messages of a personal nature and that the affair had been far from 'brief'. Bosses of the TV company are to meet tomorrow to consider Mr Bakeman's future.

3

Campaigners [redacted] in their battle against full body scanners in airports following a court decision supporting a woman who refused to accept a scan. A number of civil liberties groups had [redacted] to back the woman in an attempt to [redacted] the government's proposals that everyone travelling by plane should have to pass through the machines. The campaigners say it is a gross [redacted] of privacy as the scanners can see through clothing. The government has said that it will not [redacted] in its policy and believes the scanners play a crucial role in protecting the public from terrorism. It plans [redacted] decision.

4

And finally, peace [redacted] in the village of Paulston. A dispute had been [redacted] over a statue of St John of Bidshire, the multi-prize-winning pig of local farmer Tim Langford. The three-metre pink sculpture, which had been standing at the entrance of the village for over a year, had split the village, with half saying it was hideous, while supporters of Mr Langford said it stood as a proud symbol of the local produce for which Paulston is famous. Protesters had marched onto Mr Langford's land and sprayed the statue with paint. There were then [redacted] attacks against the vandals. Now the local council has [redacted] as peacemaker to solve the dispute. Mr Langford has agreed to the statue being relocated to a nearby sculpture gallery, but it will be moved back to the village during the three-day summer festival.
