Hostel - European accommodation system that provides budget-oriented, sociable where guests can rent a bed, usually a bunk bed, in a dormitory and share a bathroom, lounge, and sometimes a kitchen.

The first hostel was founded at the beginning of the XX century, in 1909, in Germany.

One day a teacher named Richard Schirrmann decided at the weekend to take his students out of town. The students were from poor families, to spend the night somewhere for the money it was not possible, so spend the night in local schools. Gradually I formed the idea of inexpensive accommodation for young people, which would work on an ongoing basis. The first such hostel arranged the teacher at the school where he worked. Schirrmann the evening with a few students from the classes carried desks and chairs, and the floor laid bags of straw. Early in the morning, guests help teachers make these improvised beds and place back desks and chairs.

- Bathroom, shower and common kitchen
- The rooms at the same time can accommodate more foreign people
- Hostels demand for low-cost travel lovers, so they focus mostly on youth, sports teams, pilgrims.
- Most hostels have safes.
