

FA52 WNG

Julian Street Motors

Jeep

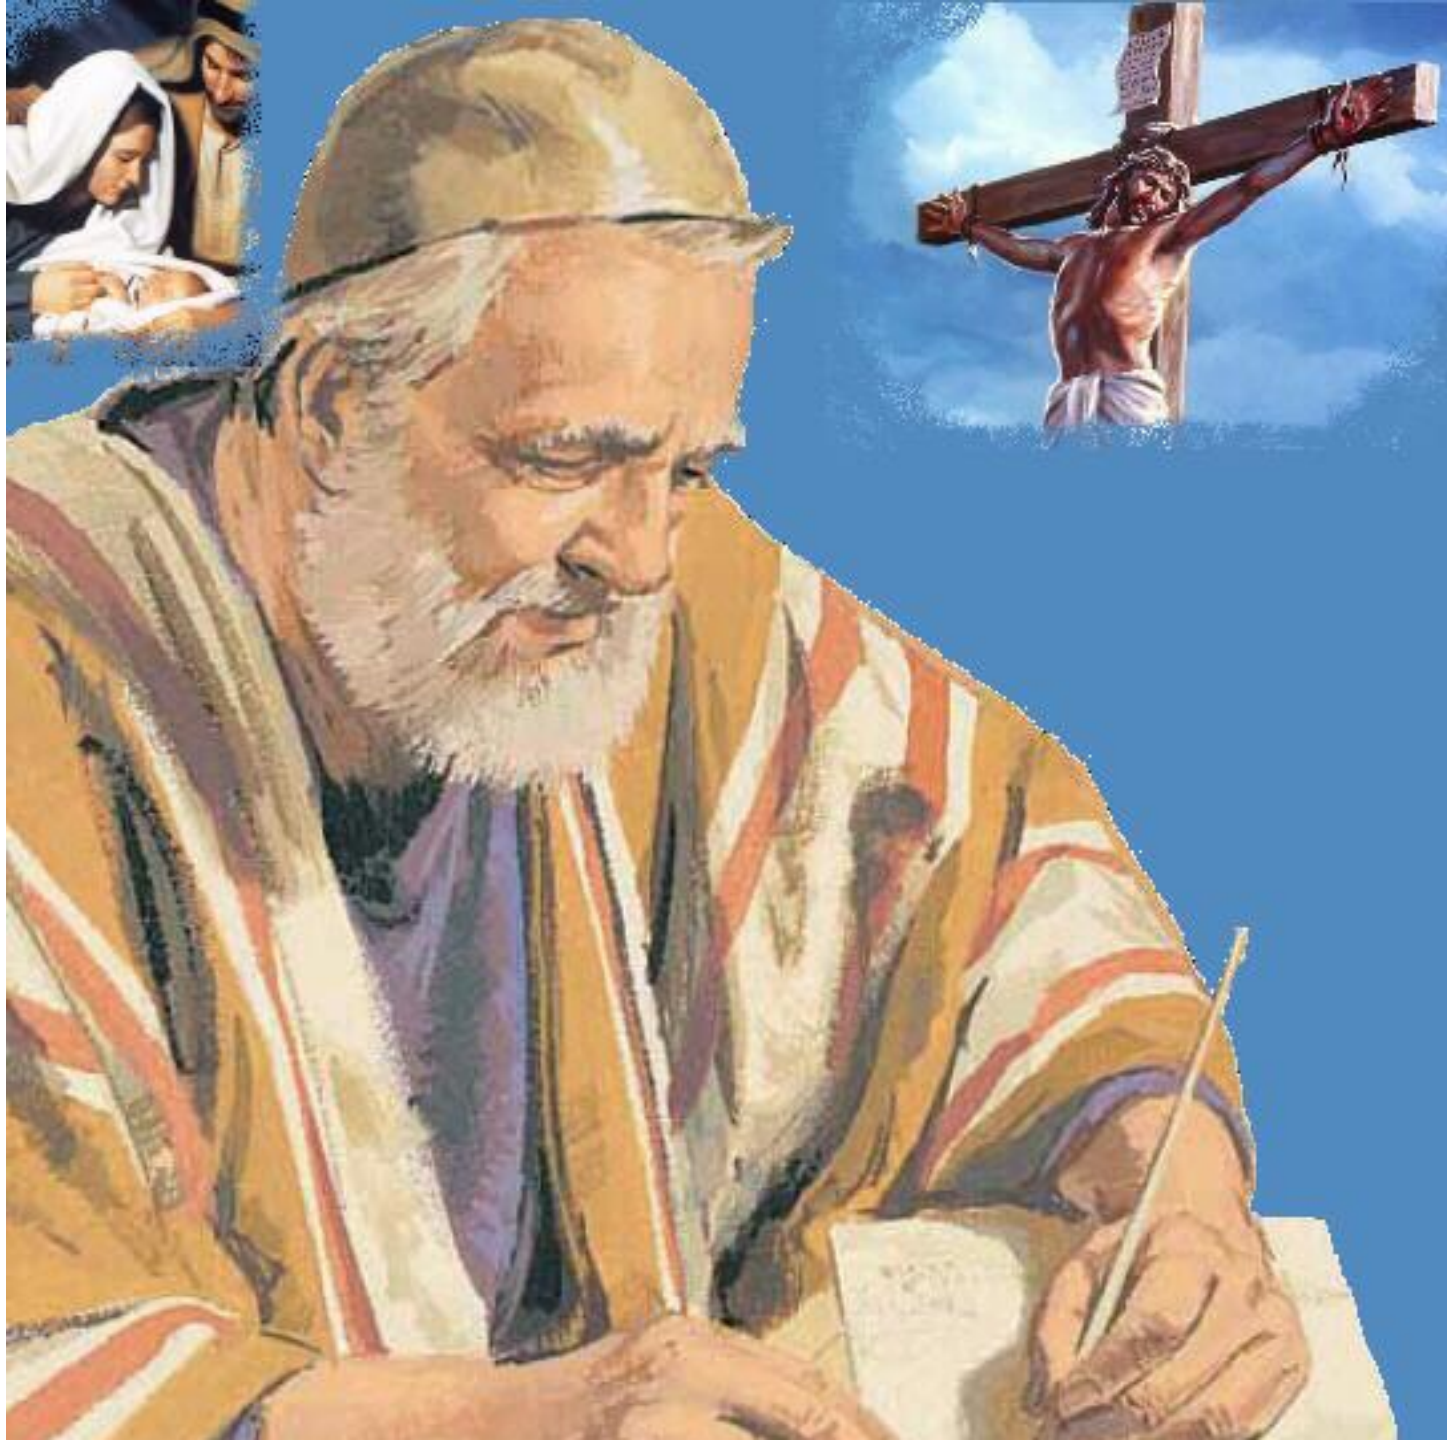

V6

J. Collana

Мессия ожидается
в Вифлееме в ближайшие 25 лет

Даниил говорит, что время
Мессии пришло

Мессия придет скоро

U.S. POSTAGE PAID
PT. PLEASANT, NJ
PERMIT NO. 531
ZIP CODE 08742

Friday
May 1, 1998

50 CENTS

■ BAY HEAD ■ MANTOLOKING ■ POINT PLEASANT ■ POINT PLEASANT BEACH

Town by Town

BAY HEAD
Environmental Commission studies beaches, page 12.
MANTOLOKING
Popea sworn in to another BOE term, page 3.
POINT PLEASANT
Three seek two seats in Nov. election, page 8.
POINT PLEASANT BEACH
Borough seeks funds to buy Pleasure Beach, p. 7.
BAY HEAD
Historical Society withdraws from museum plan, p. 13.
POINT PLEASANT
Board of Education earns honors for offering quality education, p. 11.

Sports

BASEBALL
Gulls near top of division, page 21.
SOFTBALL
Point Boro Panthers stop Rumson, page 21.
TRACK
Point Boro track results, page 25.

A STAR IS BORN - Point Pleasant Beach residents David and Cassie Palmer get a sneak preview of the inaugural edition of The Ocean Star while relaxing on the boardwalk. The Ocean Star, published weekly on Friday, will report all the local news from the northern Ocean County communities of Bay Head, Point Pleasant, Point Pleasant Beach and Mantoloking.

(Mike Jones Photo)

Officials, residents file suit to save ER

By James Bilotti

A lawsuit has been filed by the Point Pleasant Council and a Citizens Action Committee to declare a public hearing in which a health board approved a plan to replace the emergency room at Point Pleasant Hospital with a 24-hour urgent care center suit and void.

The suit is scheduled to be heard in court on May 15.

The matter will be heard at 9 a.m. before Superior Court Judge William H. Blawie at the Ocean County Courthouse in Toms River.

The complaints were filed against South Central Health Planning Council Local Advisory Board No. 1 (LAB) in an effort to invalidate actions taken at an April 7 public meeting during which the advisory board supported the Meridian Health System's proposal to change Point Pleasant Hospital from an acute care facility to a rehabilitative and long term care facility. The LAB also supported consolidating the emergency room at Point Hospital with the Brick Hospital in Brick Township.

Meridian Health System owns both Point Pleasant Hospital and Brick Hospital, as well as Jersey Shore Medical Center, Neptune, and Riverview Medical Center, Red Bank.

LAB subsequently makes a recommendation to the state planning board whether to approve or deny the

SEE SUIT, PAGE 20

Point Pleasant Beach warns summer visitors

By Anne Landrigan

The council will unanimously approve an amended version of an ordinance banning parking in front yards during the summer.

The four points regarding issuing the permits has not yet been discussed by the council.

The council will also discuss the possibility of issuing permits to allow the summer visitors to

Petracco Bay Head victory reversed

© D. Rober

Tom
Crawley

