

An open book with a light-colored wooden cover. The pages are made of horizontal wooden slats. The book is open, showing two pages. The text 'phrasal verbs' is written across the pages in a red, serif font. The word 'phrasal' is on the left page and 'verbs' is on the right page.

phrasal

verbs

Complete the

My wife backed me ___ over ^{up} my decision to quit my job.

Complete the

My car broke _____ down on my way to work yesterday.

Complete the

Please clean _____ ~~up~~ your bedroom before you go outside.

Complete the

Just fill in the form with your name, address, and phone number, please.

Complete the

Somebody broke ____ in last night and stole our stereo.

Complete the

The firemen had to break _____ the into room to rescue the children.

Complete the

The money must have fallen _____ out of my pocket.

Complete the

The phone company cut ___ our phone because we didn't pay the bill.

Complete the

The prisoners broke ____ of jail out when the guards weren't looking.

Complete the

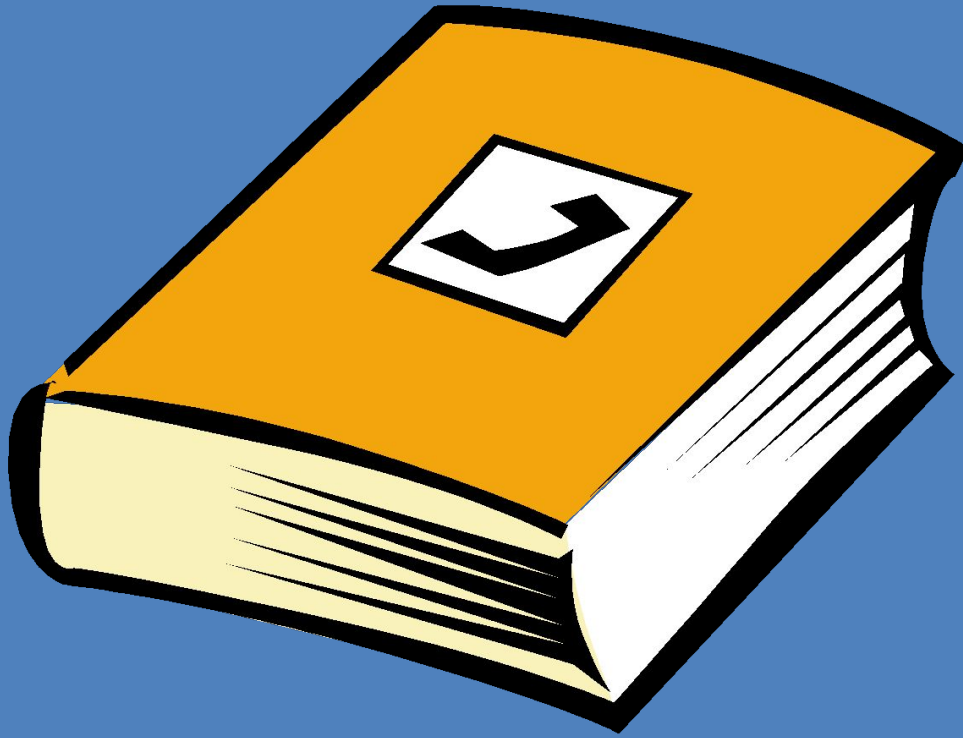

The racing car blew _____ after ~~up~~ it crashed into the fence.

Complete the

We called _____ on you last night but you weren't home.

Complete the

We don't know where he lives. How can we find ____?
out

Complete the

They had to cut the old tree in our yard _____ after the storm.

Complete the

We will get the hotel keys when we check _____. in