

An open wooden book with horizontal slats on the pages. The book is centered in the image against a solid blue background. The pages are light brown wood, and the spine is visible in the center. The text 'phrasal verbs' is written in a blue, serif font across the middle of the pages.

phrasal

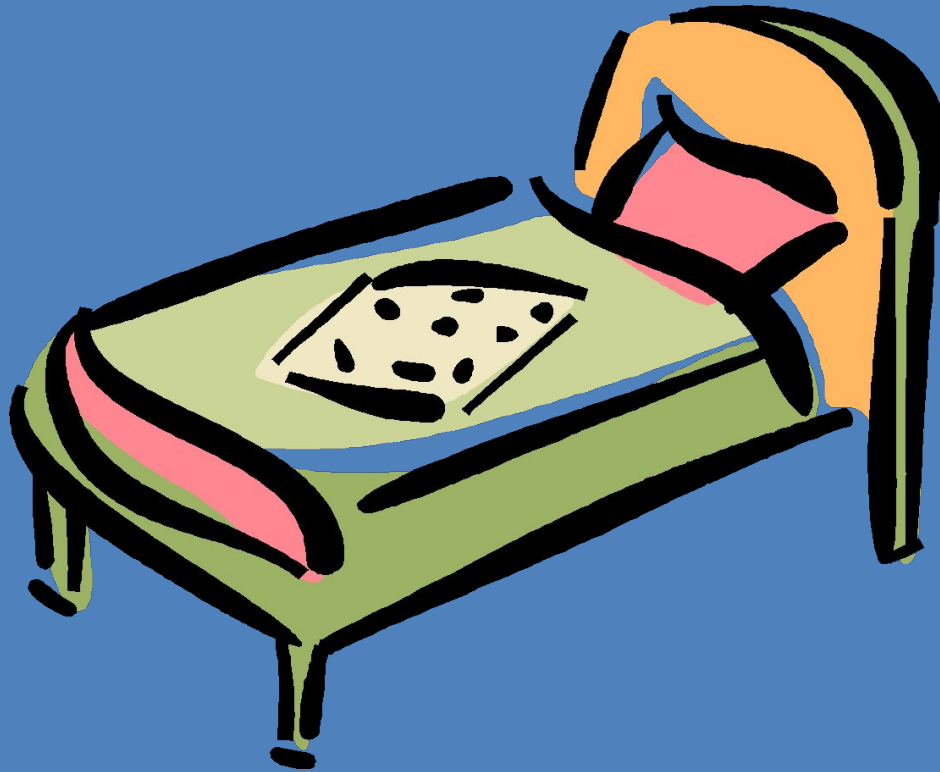

verbs

Complete the

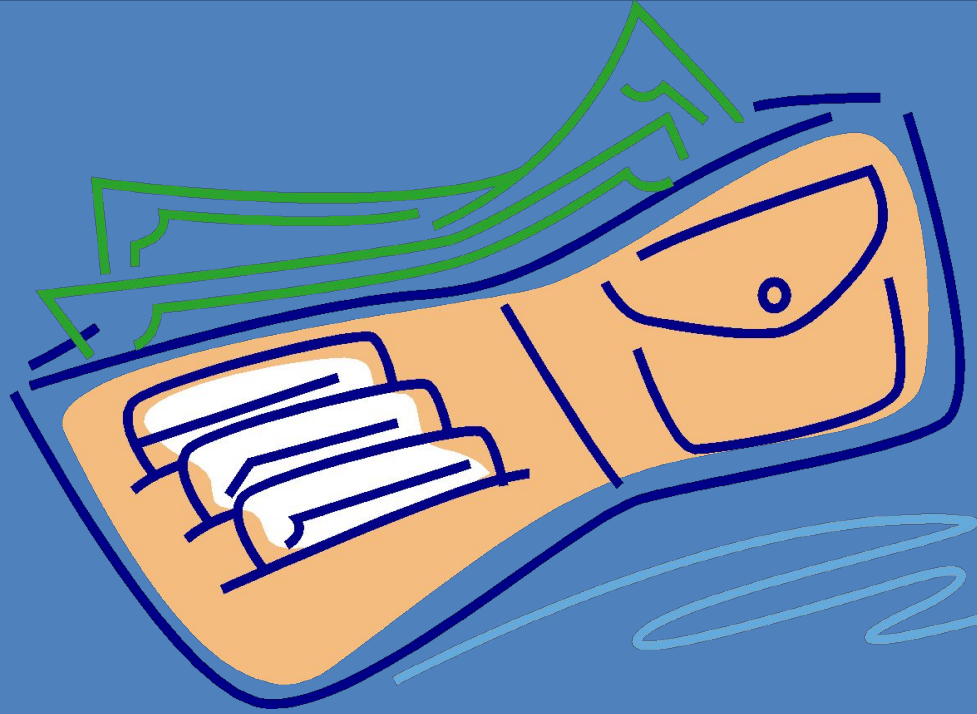

Brian asked Judy
-----out----- to dinner.

Complete the

Mum counts _____ on us to make our beds.

Complete the

I asked _____ around but nobody has seen my wallet.

Complete the

I called the company ____ but back the offices were closed for the weekend.

Complete the

Let's eat _____. out I don't feel like cooking tonight.

Complete the

When am I going to get _____ to writing my “thank you” cards?
round

Complete the

My boyfriend dropped me ___ at off work this morning.

Complete the

I've just got _____ over the flu and now my sister has it.

Complete the

It's a fancy dress party so we have to dress _____. up

Complete the

It's time to do _____ away with all of these old clothes.

Complete the

My boyfriend and I broke _____ up before I moved to America.

Complete the

My grandparents brought me ___^{up}___ after my parents died.

Complete the

My niece came _____ down with chicken pox this weekend.

Complete the

My sister and I get _____ very well together.

Complete the

We worked so hard this year that we had to get _____ for a week.

away