

A word that describes a noun

A word that describes a noun

Ballman Asset-Costs

Wordbuilding (словообразование)

Reliable, reasonable, careful,
enthusiastic, ambitious, jealous,
generous, moody, shy, cheerful,
successful, attractive, nervous,
creative, understanding, friendly,
charming, serious, sporty,
aggressive, reliable, healthy, lucky,
confident, honest

Negative adjectives...
jealous, moody, nervous,
aggressive

Try to guess.

Explanation
Other people can ask you for help if they have a problem or trust you with a secret.
You always take wise decisions and behave in a sensible and fair way.
You are always sure in what you are doing.
You always think about what you are doing so that you don't do anything wrong.
You are very interested in what you are doing.
You are determined to be successful, rich or famous.
You never tell lies or cheat people.
You are angry because someone else has something you would like or can do something you would like to do.
You are always willing to give or share.
You often become unhappy or angry without any reason.
You feel nervous and embarrassed in the company of other people.

Describe a person

